Library of Congress,

JOHN LIND BELIEVES NEGOTIATIONS OVER

President Wilson's Personal Representative Manifested No Enthusiasm Over Prospect—Ultimatum Will be Issued Within a Few Days — Felix Diaz in Prison at Havana Charged with Shooting with Intent to Kill.

Mexico City, Nov. 7.—Unwilling to admit another failure on the part of Washington to bring about the elimination of President Huerta, John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative nevertheless failed today to manifest any enthusiasm over the prospect of Huerta giving up office. From his manner and his conversation he indicated that he believes the negotiations are nearing an end.

There was nothing at the American embassy today to indicate that a more favorable turn in events is expected and there is reason to believe that an ultimatum in its full diplomatis sense soon wil be handed Huerta, the time limit being brief. It is expected this new document will be so written as to bring an end to the relations between the two countries before November 22nd, the date fixed for the convening of the new Congress, unless Huerta sees fit to agree to the terms of the Washington communication.

Mr. Lind today saw no Mexico government official and probably will not see any during his stay in the capital which it is believed will be short. Mr. Lind had a long conference today with Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the American charge d'affaires.

Silver was the most elusive thing in the capital today. The price of foreign exchange stiffened and a few merchants resorted to the plan of issuing vouchers in place of silver in making change. At some of the city banks, the bank notes of certain States were refused. This caused a slight panic among holders of such paper.

Financial Trouble.

The credit slips issued by the mercantile houses have no legal standing and in many cases were refused. In cases where they were on decline, the business houses were forced to hand back the bank notes to would-be patrons without having made a sale. The credit slips are written on various sorts of paper on which appears in ink or pencil "good for . . ." with the amount due specified. Below this usually the merchants stamped the slip with an ordinary rubber stamp bearing the firm's name. In numerous instances these slips passed as currency, not only at the houses putting them out, but in neighboring stores friendly to the store of issue. As yet the public has placed no premium on paper money.

Provisional President Huerta's formal negative reply to the United States' demands, which was discussed in detail at last night's cabinet meeting, will set forth that the United States has no right, legal or otherwise, to demand Gen. Huerta's elimination. This statement was given out today from one of the departments of the Mexican government.

The reply, it is said, will also assert Provisional President Huerta has nn legal right to accede to the demands.

The informant says it was decided to incorporate in the reply a declaration that Gen. Huerta intends to increase the Mexican army to 500,000 men.

Final stages of the negotiations between this government and the United States are to be participated in personally at short range by John D. Lind. He arrived this morning from Vera Cruz.

The series of delays in Provisional President Huerta's formal answer to the United States has been annoying to President Wilson's personal representative and Mr. Lind's sudden appearance in the Federal capital is assumed to be due to his desire to bring things quickly to a clearly defined point.

Mr. Lind conferred for more than two hours with Sir Lionel Carden, the British minister, tonight. Neither made public the character of their conversation.

Querido Moheno, minister of foreign affairs, has evinced neither curiosity nor interest over Mr. Lind's coming to the capital. To newspaper men he said today that it was a matter of no concern to him. He added that he knew of no diplomatic reasons for Mr. Lind's visits and declared he did not expect to have any communication with him.

Speaking of the wounding of Gen. Felix Diaz in Havana last night, Senor Moheno attributed the attack upon Diaz to "fanatical followers of Carranza."

Cabinet Discusses Matter.

Washington, Nov. 7.—What shall the United States do in the event Provisional President Huerta refuses to resign? This question was discussed at length today in the cabinet meeting, but no decision was announced.

Formal reply to the latest American representations had not been received up to late today, and until a definite answer comes it is not expected there will be a determination of the policy to be pursued.

The discussion at the cabinet meeting turned, however, to various alternatives. Nothing concrete developed, it was said, nor were there any tangible conclusions, but members went away with fixed ideas of the determination of President Wilson that the American government should unwaveringly insist on the elimination of Huerta from the situation as the first step toward peace in the Southern Republic.

Lifting the embargo on arms so that the constitutionalists may obtain munitions of war, was one of the principal suggestions taken under consideration, but as yet there is no change in the neutrality attitude of the Washington government.

Press dispatches today announcing to an extent Huerta's purpose of rejecting the American demands made no impression on government officials. They had received no official communication to that effect and would not comment, they said, until they had received official notice.

Still Have Hope.

A hopefulness that Huerta would realize the certainty of future complications and eliminate himself from the situation was expressed by some officials, but there was no information available to indicate upon what such optimism might be based.

Dispatches from Berling stating that Germany would consider a movement to bring the powers into support of the American policy only if such a step were desired by the Washington government, led to the belief in many quarters that some movement might yet be developed in the situation to convince Huerta of the force of the American viewpoint.

Secretary Bryan declined to discuss this or any other phase of the situation.

John Lind's unexpected return to Mexico City from Vera Cruz is understood here to have been without orders from Washington, but in line with the general instructions under which he has been enjoying the greatest freedom of movement.

Under orders from Rear Admiral Fletcher the battleship New Hampshire is steaming to Vera Cruz from Tampico. With her arrival, eight American men-of-war will be assembled off Vera Cruz. Admiral Fletcher gave the order without instructions from the Navy Department.

The gunboat Annapolis arrived today at Santa Rosalia, Lower California, where she is guarding a band of French colonists.

Diaz in Prison.

Havana, Nov. 7.—Gen. Felix Diaz was arrested here today and accused of shooting Pedro Guerrero, the young Mexican wounded by a bullet during last night's altercation in the course of which Diaz was wounded slightly.

Gen. Diaz is said to have handed the revolver to one of his companions after he had shot Guerrero and seriously wounded him. Guerrero was the man who had stabbed Diaz. Diaz looked downhearted when interviewed in prison by the Associated Press today. He showed two slight stab wounds in his neck just behind the ear. He said that he suffered no pain. The court will not decide until next week as to whether he shall be placed on trial or released.

Describing the attack on him last night, Diaz said: "I was sitting in Maleon Park listening to the concert with friends. Suddenly I was struck by an unknown party. I defended myself with an umbrella. During the scrimmage one shot was fired—I don't know by whom. A man who later was identified as Pedro Guerrero fell to the ground and a policeman took him to a hospital. I believe the attack on me was premeditated.

"I have nothing to say with regard to my future plans. I was waiting here for Mexican developments and now will be compelled to stay until this case has been cleared up."

Many contradictory versions of last night's incident were current. It is not known exactly how the affray started. Some say Gen. Diaz was suddenly attacked by his enemies.

Julio Ortez Casanova, a Cuban lawyer, said today he would petition the court for the indictment of Gen. Diaz for attempted manslaughter.

Guerrero accuses Diaz of being the assailant. He is a young newspaper man and a strong adherent of Gen. Carranza.

Finance Revolution.

Nogales, Sonora, Nov. 7.—A delegation of seven Cubans reputed both wealthy and influential, arrived here tonight to confer with General Carranza and to offer financial aid to the constitutionalists, according to Carranza's followers.

Deny Loss of City.

El Paso, Nov. 7.—Reports given out by the rebel juta of this city today that Chihuahua had fallen into the hands of the rebels, was denied by Federals in Juarez.

Writes to Dr. Tupper.

Nogales, Sonora, Nov. 7.—General Venustrano Carranza, leader of the constitutionalists, told Dr. Henry Allen Tupper, of the International Peace Forum, tonight, that if the United States would lift the embargo on the exportation of arms to Mexico, he could have 100,000 well-equipped men in the field in 90 days.

In a formal letter General Carranza today asked Tupper to be his spokesman to the American people so far as the constitutionalist cause was concerned.

Powers Combine.

Berlin, Nov. 7.—At the German foreign office it was said today that a combination of the powers in support of the United States would be considered by Germany and other European powers in case the United States expressed a wish in that direction.

"If, however, such a suggestion came from Provisional President Huerta it would not be considered by Germany unless the United States desired it."

Marines Prepared.

Portsmouth, N. H., Nov. 7.—Orders were received from Washington today for 200 of the 300 marines stationed at the Portsmouth navy yard to prepare immediately for service in a Southern climate.

Orders from Washington last night directed that the marines be ready to leave within 48 hours. Before noon today the men were awaiting an order to entrain.

Deny Report.

Washington, Nov. 7.—At the Navy Department it was denied that the preparations of marines at Portsmouth had to do with the Mexican situation

FLEET GETS WARM WELCOME

After Return from Mediterranean the Ships Will be Prepared for a Cruise in West Indies—Marines Go to Cuba.

Washington, Nov. 7.—It was announced at the Navy Department today that upon their return from the present Mediterranean cruise, about December 15th, the vessels of the first and fourth divisions of the Atlantic fleet would disperse to their various home navy yards and remain there until after the Christmas holidays.

Secretary Daniels said it was planned to have the ships gather in Hampton Roads or perhaps in New York harbor soon after New Years and prepare for a cruise in the West Indies. All the available marines at the Atlantic coast stations and yards which could not be accommodated on the transport Hancock would be taken aboard the fleet to Culebra, off the coast of Porto Rico, and thence to Guantanamo, Cuba. Rear Admiral Badger, commander-in-chief of the fleet, is working out the details of the advance base operations to be conducted at Guantanamo by the marines and possibly by the blue jackets of the fleet during the late Winter months.

On the return voyage of the ships northward, it is expected that a number of marines will be landed at Pensacola in pursuance of the plan to convert the navy yard there into one of the advanced naval bases.

Plan Entertainment.

Malta, Nav. 7.—British naval and civil authorities here have arranged a series of entertainments in honor of Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger and officers and men of the battleship Wyoming due here tomorrow.

The American flagship will have the harbor practically to herself, as most of the British fleet is engaged in maneuvers.

Welcome Gray Monsters.

Naples, Nov. 7.—Admiral Cattelica, former minister of marine, arrived here from Rome today having been entrusted by Minister of Marine Mills with the duty of welcoming the American battleships Florida and Arkansas which are due here tomorrow. The Italian battleships Roma and Napoli proceeded to sea today to meet the American visitors.

Arrive Today.

Marseilles, Nov. 7.—Wireless dispatches received tonight from the United States battleships Ohio and Vermont say the vessels will arrive here tomorrow morning. Commander Henry Hough, naval attache of the American embassy at Paris, came to Marseilles today to meet the warships.

Will Pay Respects.

Villa Franca, France, Nov. 7.—The United States battleships Utah and Delaware are expected here at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning. Immediately on landing Capts. Vanduser and Rodman will call on M. Joly, prefect of the Department of the Alpes Maritime and Gen. Heloues, the military governor.

SUSPEND NEW RATES.

Inter-State Commission Sets November 24th for First Hearing.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The 5 per cent increase in freight rates proposed by Eastern railroads was suspended by the Inter-State Commerce Commission today until March 12th, 1914, and November 24th, 1913, was set as the date for the first hearing. About 21,000 tariffs are suspended by the order.

It is not expected that the commission wil be abe to dispose of the case before March 12th, and the tariffs probably will have to be re-suspended to a later date.

Louis D. Brandeis, of Boston, who is to represent the commission as counsel in the case, is engaged now in the preparation of material and in the collection of data bearing upon the proceeding.

Chinese Parliment Is Having Trouble

Peking, Nov. 7.—As neither house of the Chinese Parliament is able to form a quorum, the leaders of the other parties are endeavoring to persuade the government to return the credentials to the less hostile members of the Democratic party.

All of the 300 Democrats were expelled from Parliament by Presidential proclamation. The party formerly was led by Dr. Sun Yat Sen, first provisional president, now in exile.

The speaker of the Assembly, Tang Hua Lung, has requested the remaining members of Parliament to stay in Peking and strive for the maintenance of the parliamentary institutions, urging that the termination of these would mean the ending of the Chinese republic.

It was reliably reported today that the Chinese military leaders had been urging President Yuan Shi Kai for months to assume control, arguing that government with Parliament was impossible.

NOT A CANDIDATE.

Martin Glynn Content With One Year as Governor.

New York, Nov. 7.—Martin Glynn, Governor of New York, issued a statement here this afternoon saying that under no circumstances would he be a candidate for re-election.

"There is more honor in being an efficient Governor for one year," he said, "than an indifferent one for eight."

STRIKE SETTLED AT INDIANAPOLIS

Governor Ralston Chiefly Responsible for Agreement of Companies

SOLDIERS WERE NOT NEEDED

Cars Will be Operated After Twenty-four Hours—All Old Employes Return to Work—Soldiers Are Sent Back.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 7.—The strike of the employes of the Indianapolis Traction & Terminal Company was settled late today through the efforts of Governor Samuel M. Ralston. The employes won their demand for arbitration, but nothing is said about recognition of the Union or terms of settlement.

Street car service is to be resumed within 24 hours, according to the terms of the settlement which also provides against any further interference with the operation of the cars.

All the men who were in the employ of the company Friday night, October 31st, when the strike was called, and all employes who had been discharged on account of joining the union, are to be reinstated by the company with full seniority rights and without prejudice. The company, however, is not compelled to reinstate men who engaged in violence during the strike.

Ten Days Arbitration.

Disputes and grievances as to wages, hours, and conditions of service, will be referred to the utilities commission for arbitration if the company and employes fail to reach an agreement within ten days. The company must take up these grievances with its employes within five days after the resumption of service. The utilities commission by the terms of settlement, must render a decision which shall be binding on all parties interested for three years and shall relate back to the resumption of work within 30 days from the date of the first hearing.

In addition to union and traction company officers, the agreement was signed by Ethelbert Stewart, representing the Federal government, and Governor Ralston of the State.

The settlement of the strike means that the 2,000 members of the Indiana National Guard called to Indianapolis yesterday by the Governor, for strike duty, will be dispatched to the home stations as soon as possible.

The strike began a week ago tonight and has resulted in four deaths and injuries to a hundred or more persons, including several police officers. Until yesterday, when the city quieted down, the downtown streets have been the scenes of almost continuous rioting and much damage has been done to street railway property.

Union officials declare that, while disappointed in not obtaining recognition of the union, they obtained their main contention, arbitration of all disputes. The railroad company asserts it won in its fight not to recognize the union.

Credit for settlement of the strike is given to Governor Ralston, who has been untiring in his efforts to bring the company and its employes together.

CAUSE OF EXPLOSION.

Investigation and Report of Recent Mine Disaster.

Santa Fe, Nov. 7.—In an official report made public today State Mine Inspector R. H. Beddow, who investigated the mine disaster at Dawson, October 22nd, says the explosion which wrecked the mine was due to firing of an overcharged shot in one of the rooms by a miner.

This stirred up and ignited the coal dust in the surrounding workings, causing a second and more terrific explosion, which wrecked the mine. The shot was fired from the trolley wire during working hours when the full shift was at work in the mine, says the report, which was contrary to the mining laws and to the rules of the company.

OUTLINES

The American fleet is receiving a warm welcome in the European ports.

It is rumored in Washington that Wm. F. McCombs will accept the ambassadorship to France.

William Sulzer has been called to the stand in the graft investigation being conducted by the district attorney in New York City.

The strike at Indianapolis is settled. The Governor of the State influenced the transportation companies to listen to the demands of the men.

The currency committee reconsidered the number of regional reserve banks as decided several days ago. The number decided upon was four, but the excessive talk of a caucus over the matter bluffed the two rebelling Democratic Senators to vote right.

John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative in Mexico, thinks that negotiations between America and that country are drawing to an end. It is thought that an ultimatum will be issued soon telling Huerta what Uncle Sam will do in case he doesn't get out.

New York markets: Flour steady. Wheat firm; No. 2 red 97 to 99. Corn firm, 80. Rosin quiet. Turpentine steady. Money on call firm 3 1-2 to 4 per cent; ruling rate 4; closing bid 3 3-4 to 4. Spot cotton quiet; middling uplands 14.00; middling gulf 14.25.

RECONSIDER THE NUMBER OF BANKS

Administration Forces on the Committee Strengthened by a Shift in Line Up.

CONFERENCE ON CURRENCY

Senators Reed and O'Gorman Who Have Opposed Administration Principles in Committee, Voted With Democrats.

Washington, Nov. 7.—A shift in the line-up of the currency bill today strengthened the position of the administration forces, but left the Senate Committee in a temporary deadlock. Senators Reed and O'Gorman, who have been opposing administration proposals in the committee, rejoined the Democrats and the committee voted to re-consider the decision which cut down from twelve to four the number of regional banks in the proposed new system.

Senator Crawford, Republican, voted with the Democrats to re-consider, but a discussion which at times waxed warm and which lasted all afternoon, failed to force a vote on a proposition to fix the number of banks at seven. Senator Crawford said he had voted to re-consider solely as a matter of courtesy. He made it clear that he would not support a resolution to increase the number. Senator Hitchcock made it plain that he would not swing into line with the other Democrats and with a six to six tie in prospect the administration forces avoided a vote.

The administration Senators succeeded today in voting to retain the secretary of the treasury on the proposed Federal reserve board. The reading of the bill was begun and a number of minor proposals were passed upon. The committee voted down a proposal to force a double liability similar to that of present National bank stockholders on the stock of the proposed regional banks.

Changes Are Made.

The section of the present bill which would force all National banks into the system under penalty of losing their charters within a year was changed. National banks, under the amendment, would be required to signify their intention of entering the system within 60 days. Banks which at present are reserve agents and which fail to enter the new system within ninety days would forfeit their reserve agencies.

The committee voted down a proposal by Senator Crawford to allow the regional banks to do a general commercial banking business.

With the committee hard at work but tied up on the fundamentals of the bill, the movement for a caucus of Democratic Senators gained momentum today. A petition was circulated by Senators Ashurst, of Arizona, and Martine, of New Jersey, calling for a conference on the currency question generally. No detailed directions were included in the call. It was understood that the real subject of the caucus and its scope in relation to the work of the committee would be decided after it met.

Administration Senators, including Senator Owen declared they had taken no part in starting the call for a conference and it was stated that the administration was not behind the call.

Senator Kern, chairman of the Democratic caucus to whom the call is directed, left Washington today. He will not return until Monday and the call will be presented to him then.

Talk of rather bitter feeling among committee members and reported heated outbursts during the sessions, cropped up today. It was asserted one member of the committee on the Democratic side had threatened to leave the committee room and refuse to participate in the deliberations after Chairman Owen had made a speech urging support for administration proposals.

William Sulzer Is to Tell of Grafting

New York, Nov. 7.—William Sulzer will be subpoenaed as a witness in the John Doe investigation of graft charges made by John A. Hennessy, Sulzer's former graft investigator, according to announcement made at the district attorney's office today.

It was reported also that Charles F. Murphy will be called.

When the John Doe inquiry is resumed Tuesday, it is expected that Hennessy will be called again and also George H. McGuire, of Syracuse, bonder of construction companies, much of whose testimony yesterday contradicted that of Hennessy and regarding contributions to Tammany Hall from up-State contracting firms.

The telegram alleged he received from Syracuse relating to contributions is regarded as of pivotal importance by Mr. Whitman, who is expected to subpoena the receiving clerk in the Western Union Telegraph Company at Syracuse to determine whether the message was sent by McGuire as Hennessy testified he believed it was.

It was learned tonight that District Attorney Whitman had been warned over the telephone to half the inquiry.

"You had better stop this thing; your best friends may be involved if you don't," said a man who did not disclose his identity.

"If I can stand against Jack Rose and that gang I guess I can stand against this new gang," was Mr. Whitman's comment.

SOUTHERN NAVY YARDS INSPECTED

Assistant Secretary Roosevelt Will Visit Pensacola, Fla., and New Orleans, La.

ADVANCE BASE IMPERATIVE

Yard at New Orleans Will be Left as It is for the Repairing of Small Craft—Yard at Philadelphia Will Not be Hurt.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, of the Navy, will go next week to Pensacola, Fla., to inspect the navy yard and surrounding reservation there with the view of the establishment of an advanced naval base there. Experts who have investigated conditions at Pensacola have reported favorably on the site. Moreover, the board of inspections for shore stations in its latest report now before Secretary Daniels, says Pensacola is the best and only site on the Gulf of Mexico for a naval station of the first class, and that such a station adequately protected "is most desirable in peace and absolutely necessary to success of the fleet in time of war."

For some years past the operations at the Pensacola yard have been unimportant, but naval experts recall the extensive use to which she was put during the Spanish war. Secretary Daniels in discussing the Pensacola problem today declared that the establishment of an advanced base on the Florida coast of the Gulf of Mexico would in no manner diminish the importance of Philadelphia as an advanced base. He reiterated his previous declaration that the approaching opening of the Panama Canal makes an advanced base on the Gulf of Mexico imperative.

Before returning Mr. Roosevelt will visit the New Orleans yard. Although naval experts have recommended the closing of this yard. Mr. Daniels thinks it can be used in the repair of lighter draft vessels.

MORRISON AT SEATTLE.

Secretary of American Federation of Labor Expresses His Views.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 7.—Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, addressing the Western Labor Immigration Congress, today denounced ex-President Taft for vetoing the immigration bill passed a year ago and declared that employers who opposed this bill were bent on tearing down the civilization of the country to fatten their own purses.

Mr. Morrison predicted an enormous flow of European immigrants to the Pacific coast through the Panama canal.

When these strangers com—500,000 to 800,000 of them—the first year," he said, "they will have to find work. If they cannot get $3 a day they will take less, possibly 50 cents, or just enough to buy bread and avoid starvation. By admitting these people you are not only hurting yourself but the nations from which they come."

President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, in urging that the trades union exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition be a good one, said it had virtually been agreed that there would be no convention of the Federation next year, but that the 1915 convention should be held in San Francisco early in the year.

PRESENT RESOLUTIONS.

Georgia and South Carolina Want Federal-built Roads.

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 7.—Resolutions requesting President Wilson and Congress to take up the question of proper provision for the construction and maintenance of public highways, adopted today by the Georgia-Carolina Good Roads Congress, will be personally presented to the President and the Senate Executive Committee by Commissioner of Agriculture E. J. Watson, of South Carolina, president of the Congress.

The resolutions recite the opinion of the Congress that it is vital to the agricultural and manufacturing interests of Georgia and South Carolina that action be taken toward Federal aid for highways in order that the South may profit from the building of the Panama canal.

Congressman Thomas W. Hardwick spoke today on "The Relation of the National Government to Good Roads."

SHOOTS THREE WOMEN.

Husband Wounds Wife and Sister-in-Law—Kills Mother-in-Law.

Rebecca, Ga., Nov. 7.—Miles Cribb, a farmer, this afternoon shot and killed Mrs. J. G. B. Hancock, his mother-in-law, fatally wounded his sister-in-law, Miss Sallie Hancock, and seriously wounded his wife. Cribb and his wife are said to have been estranged for some time and this afternoon Mrs. Hancock is said to have endeavored to have papers served on Cribb to get possession of her little grandchild, who is being held, she alleged, by Cribb against the wishes of his wife.

Cribb surrendered to the authorities immediately after the shooting.

M'COMBS ACCEPTS AMBASSADORSHIP

Will Represent United States in French Capital, Say Dispatches.

WAS MARRIED YESTERDAY

Miss Dorothy Williams and William F. Joined the Matrimonial Throng Yesterday in the Cathalic Chapel in London.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Persons close to the White House said today that William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, would accept President Wilson's offer of the ambassadorship to France. The post has been open to Mr. McCombs ever since the inauguration.

In political circles it was generally believed that Mr. McCombs would become ambassador to France and resign the chairmanship of the Democratic National Committee. Talk of a successor already is being heard and the name of Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary of the President, has been suggested by National committeemen in Washington. Some of those who are suggesting Mr. Tumulty pointed out that it would be essential in the choice of a National chairman to have some one who had the personal confidence of the President.

Mr. Tumulty declined to talk about the matter. As the Democratic chairman usually is not called upon for any extended work until the time arrives for the Presidential campaigns, acceptance of the post by Mr. Tumulty would not necessarily involve resigning his present position.

The Wedding.

London, Nov. 7.—William F. McCombs, of New York, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and Miss Dorothy Williams, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. John R. Williams, of Washington, D. C., were married today. The ceremony took place in the Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter's and St. Edward's, Palace street, Westminster.

DEATH OF DR. M'BURNEY.

Was Called "Father of Appendicitis" by His Colleagues.

Stockbridge, Mass., Nov. 7.—Dr. Charles McBurney, eminent New York surgeon, died suddenly of heart disease early today at the home of his sister in Brookline, Mass. He was 68 years of age.

Dr. McBurney returned from a hunting trip in Maine last Saturday. He had appeared in his usual health until this morning.

Dr. McBurney, after a practice of nearly 40 years in New York, retired to his country estate here in 1907. During his professional life he was connected as visiting or consulting surgeon with many New York hospitals. When McKinley was shot in 1901 Dr. McBurney was called from Stockbridge and took charge of the case upon his arrival in Buffalo.

New York, Nov. 7.—Dr. McBurney had acquired a considerable reputation as a surgeon when in 1889 he published an essay on experience with operative interference in cases of disease of the vermiform appendix. The essay brought him recognition from the whole world and for many years his colleagues jocularly called him the 'father of appendicitis." His essay created the first general recognition of the disease and established a means of diagnosis and a character of treatment.

His later contributions to medical science included the first effective operation for the relief of hernia and a new method of operation for biliary calculi.

EMMINENT MAN DEAD.

Alfred Russel Wallace—"Grand Old Man of Science."

London, Nov. 7.—Alfred Russell Wallace, the eminent British scientist, died here today. He was 91 years old.

Professor Wallace, the "grand old man of science," shares with Darwin the honors of having set forth the scientific principles of evolution.

Wallace's bent toward scientific research dated back to a collection of beetles, which he began as a school boy, and to complete which he made an expedition to the Amazon in 1848.

A year or two later, he visited Sumatra and Java, and discovered that the Malay Archipelago was divided into a Western group of islands, which in origin are oriental and an Eastern group which are Australian.

Wallace became convinced of the truth of evolution and originated the theory of natural selection during these travels. His work in the development of the laws of evolution supplements that of his friend, Darwin, and the result is often called the Darwin-Wallace theory.

DECISION THIS MORNING.

Gov. Felker Will Announce Fate of Harry K. Thaw.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 7.—Governor Felker announced this afternoon that he would give his decision in the Thaw extradition proceedings at the State House at 10 o'clock tomorrow.

In a statement issued today Thaw picked flaws in the latest paper filed with Governor Felker by William T. Jerome, special deputy attorney general of New York, and claimed that political defeat has been visited upon various persons in New York who have been connected with the prosecution of his case.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Secretary Daniels will go to Newport News, Va., tomorrow, where he will deliver an address Saturday on Navy Chaplains at a Bible School rally.

TODAY'S FOOTBALL GAMES

Many Unbeaten Teams Face Each Other This Afternoon—Harvard-Princeton Game is Center of Interest.

New York, Nov. 7.—Football games which will have a decided bearing on the ultimate ranking of Eastern college elevens are scheduled for tomorrow. Several unbeaten elevens will be brought together. The feature games of the day are between Harvard and Princeton at Princeton, and Pennsylvania and Dartmouth at Philadelphia.

The Harvard squad, more than 30 strong, spent the night here and will move on to Princeton early tomorrow. It was said that every member of the first string was in perfect condition. Although the Crimson is conceded to have the strongest eleven in the East this season, experts have pointed out that its defense is weak, as compared to the offense.

The fact remains, however, that not one of the six teams that have faced Harvard to date has been able to score a touchdown against the 'varsity team by straight football and that the Crimson has at no time been in danger of defeat, while it rolled up 170 points against its opponents.

In Princeton, however, Harvard will face a team stronger and better grounded in the rudiments of football and the power of the Cambridge team will be tested. The Tiger aggregation is both fast and strong and considered as a whole the Princeton line should be able to hold the Crimson forwards in check. The Harvard backfield is expected to prove faster and more dangerous.

At Franklin field, where Pennsylvania and Dartmouth will meet another fast and brilliant game should result. Both teams have shown class A calibre this season, playing a combination of the old and new game which has proved baffling to opponents. It is doubtful if any two elevens in the East today are better prepared in every respect for a gruelling game.

Yale tomorrow will have her final try-out before facing Princeton, using the fast Brown university eleven as opponents. If the Eli aggregation plays up to the standard of its best work this season Brown should be defeated.

Cornell will figure in the only intersectional game of the day, since the University of Michigan eleven will be entertained at Ithaca. Both teams are prepared to battle to a finish.

Both the Army and Navy have drawn strong contenders for their Saturday games in Albright and Bucknell, respectively.

The leading games to be played in the East with the scores of 1912 where the same colleges met, follow:

Harvard at Princeton, 16 to 6.
Brown at Yale, 0 to 10.
Dartmouth at Pennsylvania, no game.
Michigan at Cornell, 20 to 7.
Albright at Army, no game.
Bucknell at Navy 17 to 7.
Carlisle at Johns Hopkins, no game.
Rochester at Colgate, 0 to 27.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 7.—Football in Dixie tomorrow, while presenting a number of contests that should prove esting will stage only a few than be regarded as having a direct ing upon the S. I. A. A. champ ship.

he clash between Auburn and rgia Tech at Atlanta probably is the most important of Southern gridiron battles. Making a discouraging start, Georgia Tech recently has shown decided improvement which is largely attributed to the coaching of Lieutenant Devore, former Army star who recently volunteered to assist in training the Tech squad. Those who have watched the Yellow Jackets of late say that the defeat last Saturday of Sewanee was directly due to Devore's work.

Auburn, as in years past, is regarded as one o fthe strongest elevens in the South. This season the Alabama squad has defeated L. S. U., and Clemson without suffering the loss of a first string man, and tomorrow will face Tech in perfect condition.

The game between Alabama and Sewanee at Birmingham should prove interesting as should that between Vanderbilt and Tennessee at Nashville. Other games tomorrow on Southern gridiron are:

V. M. I. vs. North Carolina A. & M., at Richmond, Va.
Washington and Lee vs. North Carolina at Lynchburg, Va.
Florida vs. Arkansas at Shreveport, Louisiana.
Mississippi A. & M. vs. Tulane at Meridian, Miss.
Chattanooga vs. Central of Kentucky at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—An off day in Central States football so far as "big" games are concerned; tomorrow will furnish contests important mainly as final workouts before the battles which later are to decide championship.

Perhaps the toughest of the day's battles in this section is the one between Drake and Missouri at Columbia, while another that may be hard fought is that in which Mount Union plays the Michigan Aggies.

Important games tomorrow include:
Indiana vs. Iowa at Iowa City.
Chicago vs. Northwestern at Evanston.
Mount Union vs. Michigan A. & M. at Lansing.
Ohio State vs. Wisconsin at Madison.
Purdue vs. Rose Poly at LaFayette.
Missouri vs. Drake at Columbia.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 7.—On the eve of the battle with Harvard the Princeton football squad rested quietly in the University field house tonight, under the watchful eyes of the coaches. Their work this afternoon was not hard enough to tire them out but the orders to rest were absolute.

Every offensive play the Tigers could possibly work on Harvard was rehearsed thoroughly this afternoon. There was no scrimmage. The coaches took Law and Borden aside for some work in punting and Captain Baker came in for a brisk practice at kicking goals.

All the first string men except Baker is in good condition. He has developed a bad knee and is not likely to get in the game.

Harvard money is being offered at odds varying from ten to six, to four to three and taken as fast as it is offered.

The entire 26,000 seats in the temporary stadium were sold out tonight and there was still a demand for accommodations.

The line-up as announced tonight follows:

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—The Univerwas given a signal drill today on the links of the White Marsh Country Club in preparation for the game here tomorrow with Dartmouth. Despite his injured eye Walter Simpson insists he will play in his position at center on the Pennsylvania eleven.

State College, Pa., Nov. 7.—For the first time in its history the Pennsylvania State College football eleven was defeated on the home field today, Notre Dame University winning 14 to 7. The game was the hardest fought and one of the most brilliant ever seen in Pennsylvania State.

CHOOSE NEW PRESIDENT.

Governor Tener May Oppose Lynch for Head of National League.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 7.—Governor Tener, who has been mentioned as a possible candidate for President of the National Baseball League, today would not say whether he would accept the leadership of that organization.

No offer of the presidency has been made and I have nothing further to say, the Governor replied to a question.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 7.—President James E. Gaffney, of the Boston National League club, today declared himself in favor of the election of Governor John K. Tener, of Pennsylvania, to succeed Thomas J. Lynch, as president of the National League.

New York, Nov. 7.—When President Thomas J. Lynch was questioned regarding the report that Governor Tener, of Pennsylvania, would be a candidate for the presidency of the National League, he said:

"I know nothing about the campaign against me except what I read in the newspapers. If it is true that Governor Tener is a candidate I shall consider it an honor to run against him. My administration of league affairs cannot be so bad when they pick one of the foremost public men in the country to oppose me."

New York, Nov. 7.—The delegates to the National Conference of Customs Collectors, Deputy Collectors and Surveyors, which has been in session here all week, will meet Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo in Washington Monday, it was announced today.

The conference will be concluded tomorrow and in the afternoon a tour of the harbor will be made on a United States revenue cutter. Chicago, Nov. 7.—The case of Attorney Daniel Donahoe and Detective Isaac Stiefel, charged with having conspired to defame Clarence S. Funk will go to the jury next Tuesday, according to the predictions of attorneys after presentation of evidence closed today.

Neither Donahoe nor Steifel took the witness stand in his own defense, only character testimony being introduced. Counsel for the State will make the opening argument when court convenes tomorrow.

A WEEK OVERDUE.

Fear Expressed for Hamburg-American Line Steamer.

Boston, Nov. 7.—A week overdue at this port with a cargo volued at $1,300,000, the Hamburg-American Line freighter Aragonia, was the subject of some anxiety today. No word has been had from her since she passed Gibraltar October 17th, bound from Yokohama and other Asiatic ports. The Aragonia carried a crew of 50.

While crossing the Red Sea the furnice crowns of one of her boilers collapsed and she was forced to put in at Aden for repairs. She was due here October 30th or 31st.

RICHMOND GAME TODAY.

A. & M. Team Finally Whipped Into Shape for Meet.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 7.—The last stiff practice was held this afternoon in preparing the A. & M. 'Varsity for the game with V. M. I. in Richmond tomorrow. A short but stiff scrimmage was held, after which the 'Varsity was run through a long signal practice. Coach Green has been giving a large amount of attention to the punting and drop kicking of Riddick, and is very much pleased with his work. He is averaging between 40 and 45 yards on punts, and illustrated his ability at dropping the ball over the bars in last Saturday's game with Wake Forest, having made a goal from the 30-yard line, and barely missing another from the 45-yard line, which was directly on a line but fell short only a couple of feet.

The 'Varsity is in good condition, and the coaches are very well satisfied with the prospects, and are confident of defeating the cadets, although they expect a hard fought contest. The men will go through light practice, consisting mostly of signal drill Friday afternoon, and the following men will leave Raleigh Friday night on the Seaboard Air Line, arriving in Richmond Saturday morning: Coach Green, Assistant Coach Hegarty, Manager Jewell, Capt. Burtt and Tenney, Sullivan, Riddick, VanBroklin, Plylor, G. H. Anthony, O. S. Anthony, McHenry, Proffitt, Perderber, Rice, C. Young, R. Young, Scurry, Beauregard, Winston and Seifert.

TROOPS ON HAND.

Fear Popular Demonstration in Ritual Murder Trial.

Kiev, Russia, Nov. 7.—Troops in considerable numbers are being drafted in Kiev as a precautionary move in the event of anti-Semitic outbreaks as a result of the trial of Mendel Beiliss, who is charged with ritual murder in connection with the killing of the Christian boy, Andrew Yushinsky.

At today's session of the trial, M. Schmakoff, representative of the anti-Semitic, alluded to the large financial resources of the Jewish race, and alleged that their money had enabled them to control the newspapers in favor of Beiliss. He described Dr. Sikorski, who last week declared before the court that ritual murder was not the myth of popular prejudice, but a reality of the 20th century, as standing on the brink of the grave and therefore fearless in speaking the truth.

M. Schmakoff pictured the Jews as regarding Christians as animals to be destroyed without compunction. He said he did not desire that a severe penalty be inflicted on Beiliss, but asked the jury to convict the prisoner so as to bring joy to the millions of anxious Russian mothers.

Vladimir Maklakoff, leading counsel for Beiliss, followed M. Schmakoff with an analysis of weak points in the prosecution's case.

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 6.—Two hundred of Eddie Plank's "home folks" tonight honored the veteran pitcher of the Athletics at a banquet. Guests of honor were Manager Connie Mack, Eddie Collins and Harry Davis, of the Philadelphia American League club. Most of those who participated in the affair were school day friends of Plank.

TORTURED BY UGLY ITCHING ERUPTION

Doctor Recommended Resinol. Half of a 50c Jar Cured It.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 5, 1912.—"My little daughter was taken with a very small spot on the back of her hand. It grew larger and caused her more trouble. When she would scratch it, it would bleed and get very ugly looking, so I doctored it myself for about a year, and at last it broke out on both knees, and when she would go to bed she would scratch, and was so tortured and suffered so from the itching, that I took her to our doctor, who recommended Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment.

"I sent for samples and after the first application the itching and inflammation was improved, and I kept it up night and morning, and by the time the sample was gone she complained very little, so I got a fifty-cent jar, and before that was half gone the trouble had entirely disappeared." (Signed) Mrs. Maude Schmechel, 2737 Presbury Street.

Resinol is speedily effective for itching, burning eruptions, pimples, dandruff, burns, old sores and piles. Sold by all druggists. For free samples write to Dept. 15-M, Resinol Chem. Co., Baltimore, Md.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess", says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good.

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 7.—Governor Craig issued a commission today to Michael Schenck, of Hendersonville, as solicitor in the 18th Judicial District to succeed A. Hall Johnson, resigned. The commission was issued by Private Secretary Kerr in compliance with a telegram that came this morning from Governor Craig at Asheville.

The 18th district is composed of Transylvania, Henderson, Rutherford, McDowell and Yancey counties. Solicitor Johnson resigned some months ago because the revenue of the solicitorship was greatly reduced through the change in the district by the last Legislature in re-districting the State.

Charters were issued today for five new enterprises in various parts of the State. The Southern States Bank, of Asheville, capital $100,000 authorized and $25,000 subscribed by F. E. Hewett, S. Sternberger, L. L. Jenkins, R. C. Turrence and others for general banking business. The Standard Improvement Co., Charlotte, capital $100,000 authorized and $3,000 subscribed by C. M. Beam, W. S. Barbee, Themis Demetraelis and A. F. Moses for building and operating hotels, residences, apartment houses and other buildings. The Victoria Amusement Co., of Wilmington, capital $125,000 authorized and $3,000 subscribed by J. M. Solky, Roselie Muckenfuss, of New York, and J. D. Bellamy, Jr., for the employment of writers of plays, operating a tobacco and sofe drink store. The Hodgin Piano Co., Greensboro, capital $25,000 authorized and $5,000 subscribed by J. A. Hodgin, M. L. Foust, E. C. Hamilton and others.

Commissioner of Insurance James R. Young heard today the case of M. R. Wiggins, of Kinston, in which he is charged with irregularities as insurance agent in procuring insurance through wrongful reports of age and health conditions of applicants. His business partner, C. F. Smith, under similar charges, is deferred to November 20th. With the understanding that he will do no insurance business until the matter is disposed of. The outcome of the Wiggins hearing is not yet announced.

The Wake County Poultry & Pet Stock Association, just organized here with James H. Taylor as president and J. T. Bland as secretary-treasurer, is to launch at once a campaign for improving the poultry industry throughout the county, especially among the farmers as well as special poultry fanciers. There are to be annual and possibly even more frequent poultry shows, the first probably within the next few months. There is the keenest interest in the movement and very great impetus is sure to be given the poultry industry hereabouts.

Announcements are issued of the marriage of Mr. Charles E. McIntosh, chief clerk in the State Department of Education, and Miss Linda Lowe Shuford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Shuford, of Newton. The wedding was on the 5th instant and Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh are to be at home in this city November 20th.

A. F. Brower, clerk of the loan fund in the State Department of Education, is another member of this division of the State government who is to be married very soon. He is to marry Miss Kathleen M. Mathews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Mathews, at Clifton Forge, Va., November 12th. Mr. Bower came to Raleigh from Concord nearly a year ago to succeed C. H. Mebane, of Newton, in the service of the Department of Education.

Murray Allen, of this city, has been appointed by Judge Cooke, of the Superior Court, as referee to find the facts in the case of the North Carolina receivership for the American Union Life Insurance Co.,and Monongahelia Underwriters' Co., of Philadelphia, in which State Insurance Commissioner Young is as received custodian of about $15,000 that it is sought to distribute among North Carolina policyholders and other claimants. The United States Fidelity & Guarantee Co., is denying the liability of its $5,000 bond for the Monongahelia Co., for the obligations of the American Union Co., which is allied with the Monongahelia Company.

JOSEPH BELL DEAD.

Well Known Southport Citizen Dies Suddenly—His Life.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Southport, N. C., Nov. 7.—Died, early this morning, at his home in this city, Joseph A. Bell, the cause of his death being heart failure, superinduced by asthma, from which he had been a sufferer for years. He leaves a widow, who was Miss Frances F. Bell, of Beaufort, N. C. Mr. W. Percy Canady, a nephew of his wife, made his home here with the Bells, and is well known in this section. The funeral services were held this afternoon at 4 P. M., at the home on Lord street, and were conducted by the Rev. C. M. Lance, of the Methodist church.

Joseph A. Bell was born near Harlowe Creek, Cartaret county, N. C., December 15th, 1836, and would have been 77 years old next month. He enlisted early in the War Between the States in the Tenth North Carolina Regiment, Company H, being in the many battles of the Virginia campaign where he was twice wounded. He served as a scout, being bereaved sergeant. For his meritorious services, he is specially mentioned by John W. Sanders, in his sketch of Company H in Clark's works of North Carolina regiments.

Something over 30 years ago, Mr. Bell moved to this place which he has made his residence ever since. He served as keeper of Bald Head and Oak Island lights and as deputy customs collector for port of Wilmington at this place, these being government appointments. Locally, he had been alderman and county commissioner and had the record of filling all offices with the approval of those with whom he was responsible to, and with fidelity and honesty. Mr. Bell, while naturally of retiring disposition, was a man of convictions, which he ever fully maintained. He was an ardent believer in Republican party principles. Withal his positiveness he was held in high esteem by the people of this community, and his death is sincerely mourned by white and colored, for he was a friend to all.

During the last years, after giving up government service, Mr. Bell was engaged in retail merchandising.

WHITEVILLE AFFAIRS.

Good Roads Days Observed—New Enterprise—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Nov. 6.—Good Roads Days in Columbus county have been well observed, considering everything. Captained by "Judge" John H. Maxwell, quite a few of the faithful and more progressive citizens of the town engaged in a good ten hours' work yesterday and today improving the county highway connecting this place and Chadbourn, in obedience to Governor Craig's proclamation. Reports from various sections of the county indicate a very willing observance of the Chief Executive's wishes, that tend to initiate among citizens in every walk of lofe a determination to further the development of the county's highways by individual labor first, and contributory support thereafter. The town of Fair Bluff, through its Mayor, Mr. J. B. Prince, issued a proclamation calling upon the townspeople to observe yesterday and today in working the roads. In a number of places, the good ladies have prepared dinner for the workers.

A certificate of incorporation has been received here and filed with the Clerk of the Superior Court chartering the Columbus Hardware and Furniture Co., the authorized capital stock is $10,000 with $5,000 paid in by Messrs. Oscar High, J. G. Thompson and B. S. Thompson. As the name indicates, the firm will do a general hardware and furniture business. Mr. W. Murphy, of Marion, S. C., will be in charge of the hardware department and Mr. Bogue F. Baldwin, of this place, in charge of the furniture department.

The editor of The News-Reporter here, is the recipient of a large, ripe banana, grown on the plantation of Mr. J. P. Gore, at Pireway, in the southern end of the county. The specimen of this fruit sent to the editor was well developed, and clearly demonstrates the fact that on Columbus soil you can produce most anything.

A very quiet but pretty wedding occurred here yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, when Miss Beura Stanley was very happily married to Mr. Inman A. Anderson, of Marion, S. C., Rev. J. H. Poteat, pastor of the First Baptist church, performing the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family and a few close friends of the bride. The bride is a daughter of Mr. L. W. Stanley, the popular clerk of the Superior Court of this county, and is well known in social circles throughout the county.

The groom holds a responsible position with the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company at Marion, S. C. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left on the afternoon train for Marion, where they will make their future home.

Reports from Tabor that enterprising and fastly-developing terminus in the southwestern part of this county are to the effect that nearly 2,000 visitors attended the Farmers' Rally there last Saturday. The exhibits were numerous and especially encouraging to those who were fortunate enough to see them. Hon. J. A. Brown, of Cahdbourn, spoke at 11 o'clock on "Diversification of Crops." His talk was well received. Quite a number of prizes were awarded in the differetn contests, some of which were: Foot race for all, foot race for girls and boys, sack race, and prizes were awarded also for the best horse and for the best mule. Briefly, it was a day that will go down in the annals of the town that is fast making history.

The enterprising colored people of the town have completed the erection of the Methodist church here, and the same will be dedicated Sunday the 9th. Bishop W. A. Walters will preach the dedication sermon at 11 o'clock, and in the evening the Rev. J. S. Cooper, of Washington, D. C., will speak to the congregation.

Citizens of Elizabethtown Were Out in Force—All Classes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Elizabethtown, N. C., Nov. 6.—In compliance with the proclamation of Governor Craig, road working was the order here yesterday and today. In groups ranging from ministers of the gospel to the humblest of the colored race, the people were seen in places, all bending their efforts towards repairing the bad roads around the place. Your correspondent had the pleasure of working part of the day in a gang under the supervision of Sheriff J. M. Clark and composed of two ministers, the register of deeds, a doctor of medicine, a clerk in a store, a telegraph operator and several plain, ordinary citizens, both white and colored. All were throwing dirt with one aim and purpose. Much good has been accomplished in the two days on the roads in the county by this means and could all the people have turned out there would have been many miles of good roads built.

FROM COUNCIL'S, N. C.

Mr. J. S. Nicholson Very Ill—Successful Revival Held.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Councils, N. C., Nov. 7.—Many friends of Mr. J. S. Nicholson, of Councils will regret to learn that he is seriously ill at his home here. His brothers, Dr. Nicholson, of Richlands, N. C., and Judge Nicholson, of Georgia, have been summoned to his bedside.

The Baptist folks here have recently closed a very successful revival, the pastor, Rev. A. H. Porter, of Whiteville, being assisted by Rev. A. T. Howell, of Hamlet. Twenty-five additions resulted from the meeting.

Mr. A. B. Holmes has moved into his new drug store, which adds much to the business activity of the town.

Capital City Boys Now Up Against Wilmington for Championship.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., Nov. 7.—Raleigh High School eleven defeated the local High School football team this afternoon by score of 38 to 7 and should they defeat Wilmington will have the title of High School championship of the State.

Immediately after the game the spectators were next entertained by a football minstrel show, whereby the curtain rose upon the first act of a rough and tumble fight between members of the two teams, but outside of a few discolored eyes the affray passed off very quietly.

PRISONERS TERRIFIED.

Didn't Understand Vaudeville Stunt at Kinston—Child Burned.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 7.—Prisoners in the county jail here were uneasy last night about 7 o'clock when a crowd of fully a thousand people gathed in front of the building to witness the stunt of George Arrington, billed at a vaudeville theatre as the "Great Pauline," who proposed to escape from a cell in the prison to advertise the performance at the playhouse. The exhibition had been well advertised on the outside, but the inmates of the jail did not know what was up. When the throng collected the blacks in the jail held on serious charges immediately got into communication with the jailer. Franklin Gray, who will be tried for his life for murder, was re-assured when he was removed to another cage from the murderer's cell that the vaudevillician might be incarcerated there to attempt his feat, but Alec Patterson, awaiting trial for the larceny of a large sum of money, the most recent addition to the prison population, was visibly affected by the congregating in the street, gathering gloom of what he supposed to be a mob. The jailer had to explain to him that no danger was threatening. Arrington, supposed to have been thoroughly searched and declared by a committee to have no keys on his person, broke out of his shackles, picked two locks, and road off in an automoble six minutes after being locked up.

Greene county women have taken the initiative in a movement for equal suffrage to be instituted in east Carolina, and a meeting to be held in the court house in Show Hill is expected to attract women from every part of that county and the section. The plans are not definitely arranged, nor has the date been set, but entnusiastic women are now busy at a number of points promoting interest in the undertaking. Mrs. Bates, the noted Virginia suffragette, will preside, and other leaders in this and other States will be the speakers. An organization will be made at the meeting which will have as its object State-wide agitation for a constitutional amendment. Men will be allowed to participate in the meeting, but with the understanding that nothing averse to the issue will be said from the rostrum. Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the English suffragetta leader now in this country, and notable women of the six States now having equal suffrage, will be invited to send letters.

The three-year old son of Blackledge Harper and wife, of Woodington, several miles from here, may die as the result of burns received while playing with matches. The boy was at play with a sister in the yard of the Harper home. His clothing was ignited and before the flames had been extinguished by his father the lad was terribly burned. Physicians are not hopeful for his recovery.

Lots of us listen to suasion but more are susceptible to persuasion.

We would rather be wrong than be President of either Mexico or China.

Have they really done up the Tammany Tiger so he can't crawl down off the junk heap?

"Avoid delays" if it is lagging back on something that should be done for Wilmington.

Next comes the cable road that will be overhead with the cars suspended as they are propelled.

The worst part of it is that Tammany's downfall may be mistaken by Sulzer as a vindication of himself.

Says the Richmond Virginian: "Let the majority rule." We didn't know there was any doubt about the fact that she does.

Will the Speaker of the New York House say "Hello Bill" when "the same old Bill" arises to get the proper recognition?

Oh, you Wilmington candidate for Congress! It seems that the other counties in the district will have aspirants, and it is hinted that New Hanover is receptive, too.

According to the statement of a nephew of Oscar Wilde, his uncle is still alive. It is all right if he will remain in seclusion and not come forth to prove that he isn't dead as everybody presumed.

Colonel Roosevelt took his hat out of the ring and went to South America where he can't be saddled with the responsibility for what happened to the Progressive party last Tuesday. Did he see it coming?

A New York woman wants a divorce because of cruel treatment, her complaint being that her husband just stares her in the face without saying a word. His defense might be that he was too full for utterance.

By George, it does not seem as yet a settled matter whether the Progressive party or the Socialists will hold fourth place in last Tuesday's elections. The line which has been standing at Armageddon seems to have lost some of its recruits.

The Charlotte Chronicle says it is not afraid because some of the ladies of its city are joining the movement for equal rights. The Chronicle seems to be tentatively a suffragette, for that editorial copied in The Star indicates that our esteemed contemporary has put itself in a position to gracefully surrender if the situation gets to be alarming.

Mr. Far Sung is one of the Chinese government commission sent here "to pattern after United States institutions." Mrs. High Strung is not a Chinese lady but is an American lady who insists on pattering after Paris fashions. Mr. Lay Low is not a Chink but is the American man who has to furnish the "chink" for Mrs. High Strung to spend.

"Man is monarch of all he surveys." Surveys? That's correct. If a man's surveys are two-by-four, that is his size as a monarch. Men who try to do a little surveying around home are not recognized as monarchs of any size and are given to understand that they stand about as much showing to be recognized as Huerta does at the hands of President Wilson.

On Good Roads Days Governor Craig himself donned overalls and his example was such that if it is followed in the future it will remove North Carolina from the realm of the roadless country. Referring to Governor Craig's example the Richmond Journal remarks that the Governor of North Carolina was throwing dirt "while the Governor of South Carolina was still throwing mud." But was the Governor of South Carolina "still?"

MADE IN WILMINGTON EXHIBIT.

Fair week in Wilmington comes with next week when there will be an impromptu exhibit on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, embracing three features that should interest everybody in this city and hundreds of people in New Hanover and the neighboring counties. Those three features will be an exhibition of the achievements of the Boys' Corn Clubs in eastern North Carolina, a display of manufactures made in Wilmington, and an art show specially embracing the productions of home talent along various lines of handicraft, painting, sculpture, drawing, embroidery, needlework, domestic science, etc.

In this article The Star wishes to refer especially to the proposition to include an exhibition of articles and products made in Wilmington. This will give all manufacturers an opportunity to show what is being turned out in the factories of Wilmington, and while this feature has been a second thought in connection with the fair, and the time is short in which the manufacturers can arrange exhibits, there is no reason why a creditable lot of Wilmington made articles should not be sent in for exhibition.

The ladies of the North Carolina Sorosis deserve credit for giving this scope to the fair—that of making one of its features an exhibit of "made in Wilmington" articles of manufacture and handiwork. This indicates the progressive ideas of the ladies of Sorosis, since it is their initiative and not that of the manufacturers who were letting slip an opportunity to give a certain kind of publicity to their various industrial enterprises. The ladies of Sorosis not only consider and discuss social, literary, economic and scientific subjects, but they have caught the men napping on a purely constructive proposition which is intended to emphasize the industrial progress of Wilmington. Since the ladies have put one over on the most enterprising of our industrial captains and workers, they should hasten to notify the ladies that they will send up exhibits of the articles produced in their factories,

Wilmington is "no mean city" when it comes to manufacturing, as can be certified by manufactured products annually produced to the amount of about $25,000,000. It is true that the bulk of Wilmington's manufactures embrace fertilizers, lumber, woodcraft, cotton mill products, and the like, but there are a considerable number of diversified industries that greatly aid in swelling the total of Wilmington's industrial operations. They are too numerous to mention here, but the largest and the smallest ought to be represented by an exhibit at the fair. Those who cannot send bulk exhibits can send sample displays that will give the fair patrons some idea of the industrial importance of their city. No manufacturer should stand back because it might require a dray or an auto truck to bring their exhibits to the fair.

The ladies, of course, do not know of everything made in Wilmington. Neither do the people of Wilmington, nor do the visitors who are coming to the city to see the fair. It really would astonish many to know what is made in Wilmington, and it is commendable in Sorosis to give the manufacturers a chance to get in the limelight in a way that will be advantageous to their business, their interests and their city. The ladies have been endeavoring to get in touch with as many manufacturers as they can reach over the telephone and through the mails, but as they do not have a list of all who manufacture, the factory people should come forward with voluntary displays that will make the "made in Wilmington" exhibit a valuable and interesting feature of the fair.

The fine arts exhibit also is one of the Sorosis features of the fair. They had the enterprise and public spirit to proffer at once their assistance in getting up the corn show which was originated by Mr. J. P. Herring, official farm demonstrator, and those enterprising citizens who have offered prizes for the corn contestants. Be it remembered, however, that the corn show is the chief feature, as it will be a demonstration of the wonderful adaptabilities of eastern North Carolina for profitable corn growing. The corn show is open to exhibitors from any county in the State, and the probability is that if the scope of the fair had been conceived on broader lines early enough to have made it known all over North Carolina, Wilmington could have had a considerable fair.

As it is, it will prove to be an interesting occasion with its combination of agricultural, industrial and artistic features. We have an idea that it is going to be the initiatory of a movement to have a regular annual exposition in Wilmington so as to give eastern North Carolina its broadest opportunity to put its resources, its achievements, its apportunities and its possibilities on display.

MONEY IN DIVERSIFICATION EXEMPLIFIED.

News comes of slow collections in the strictly cotton producing sections, and there is a reason for it, the chief one being the prevalence of the one-crop idea instead of a diversification of money crops, such as this versatile producing region is capable of. Of course, the cotton growers will be all right when they gather their crop and take a notion to sell instead of holding back for a better price. A Wilmington jobber tells us that business is good and that there is no letup in selling, but that collections are rather slow for those merchants who have a big credit list.

One reason that the farmers in the strictly cotton area are not ready to settle as early as customary is because the cotton crop is later than usual for many years. Then again, the first liquidation in order in the cotton country is for fertilizer contracts due from October 1st to October 15th in ordinary years. Cotton opened so slowly early in the season that it has been all the cotton growers could do to get out enough to take care of the fertilizer men.

However, our Wilmington jobber says the farmers are in no hurry to sell cotton for the reason that they are satisfied that they will get more by "holding cotton." They have been able to get money enough to keep them from selling unless they want to do so, hence the usual circulation of money at this season is temporarily circumscribed. Not so, however, in the sections where diversity of crops has prevailed. There is plenty of money in circulation where tobacco as well as cotton and other products are grown. Tobacco has been selling at good prices since the late Summer and early Autumn, and with that golden money crop coming in at a season when it furnished the farmers with an early supply of ready cash, they do not have to sell cotton till they get good and ready.

Particular note should be made of the marvelous versatility of production in eastern North Carolina, demonstrated by the fact that two such wonderful money crops as tobacco and cotton follow one right after the other, not to mention the money getting peanut and the general products of this incomparable agricultural region. No wonder the Mount Olive Tribune is urging that Mount Olive should be made a tobacco market next season. That means that enough tobacco should be grown in that section to warrant a resumption of the warehouse business at Mount Olive.

Editor Mintz is right. Get the farmers to diversify, because there is money and more prosperity in it for any section. It ought to be attractive, too, since diversification in this peach of a country is so easy where tobacco can be grown as an early cash crop and cotton comes along later to swell the volume of circulation or hoard of an agricultural community. Nevertheless, our farmers should grow everything else under the sun, for all the products of this region are money crops. From truck and berry growing time in the Spring, to tobacco harvesting in mid-summer and cotton picking in the Fall, our farmers have the opportunity to be flush with money all the time.

REPRESSION OF THE PRESS.

Referring to the recent disposal of the case against Editor Saunders, of Elizabeth City, removed to Newbern for trial, the Charlotte News makes this brief mention in its editorial department:

"Editor Saunders has finally pleaded guilty to a charge of sending obscene matter through the mails, and the judge suspended judgment with the payment of the costs provided Saunders discontinues publication of his 'Downhomer.' We understand he has agreed to this settlement of the case."

That is not precisely suppression of the press or interferring with the freedom of the press, but it is putting a quietus on the license of the press. We do now know how valuable a publication the "Downhomer" was, but if it meant the means of a living for the fiery editor, it strikes us that the suppression of his paper by alternative seems to be a severer penalty than the law prescribes. All editors deserve what is coming to them on account of their acts affecting the rights of others and the public interests, but if the offending publisher can meet the penalty actually prescribed by law it is safer to inflict it as the law provides than to confiscate property by the consent of the unfortunate publisher.

We do not wish to appear to be condoning the offence of an editor, nor do we aim to criticise the court which deemed such a settlement as the best for the community and the editor, but we do think it is timely to suggest that it is not a good idea to suppress a publication by agreement with a court which may fix the alternative rather outside the law.

Judge Connor heard the proceedings against Editor Saunders, and we do not know of a one on the North Carolina bench that we do not hold in higher respect, but we believe this suggestion will appeal to the judiciary as well as the layman. Doubtless the editor's methods required suppression but he may have promised to have better judgment in the future without involving what may have been valuable property rights. It was rather repression of the press than suppression of the press.

THE SEABOARD CONSTRUCTIVE.

The Journal congratulates Atlanta that President W. J. Harahan, of the Seaboard Air Line, has announced that his company is planning to spend $1,000,000 within the next year in the construction of two extensive freight depots in the Georgia capital. That is another evidence that the Seaboard is making progress and has the financial strength to hold its place among the most important of the South's trunk line railways.

While it speaks well for the railroad and Atlanta, it speaks well for the South as it shows that the Seaboard Air Line people have confidence in the future of this part of the South. The Seaboard runs directly from Atlanta to the port of Wilmington, and this city has more than usual interest in a line which is showing that it has a constructive policy.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Fomer Governor Glenn says he has not decided on the Senatorial question, but that he doesn't believe in long campaigns. This means, in plain language, that he has not yet decided whether he stands a chance for election.—Newbern Sun.

While admitting it may be too soon to speak positively, the Salisbury Post finds the indications are that "Mr. Overman has not yet allowed the small patronage at his command to discomfort him even to the slightest degree." Unless those Burke county stalwarts are overspeaking themselves Mr. Overman's calm will not be permanent.—Greensboro News.

Live stock men are to have a meeting in Raleigh this month. The live stock industry in North Carolina is a growing one and the fact is one of the most encouraging signs of the times. It is to be hoped that the coming meeting of men interested in this great and important industry will result in additional impetus for it.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The Raleigh Chamber of Commerce is allowing no grass to grow under its feet. In a single issue of the News and Observer come tidings that a tobacco warehouse and market are assured and that it is practically settled that a new manufacturing plant is to be established here. That is the way to put water on Raleigh's commercial and industrial wheel.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Col. Joe Brown, of Chadbourn, will cultivate the usual acreage in strawberries next year, while he will make the pursuit for Congressman Godwin's scalp a side line. For a long time Brown has wanted to try his hand at scalp raising and he has announced that the time is at hand. Meantime Godwin may as well understand that there are others, or will be.—Charlotte Observer.

The plan as outlined certainly has a practical look, and that it would be of immense commercial advantage to both the Carolinas goes without saying. How the necessary link between Wilmington and Beaufort is to be made, we are not instantly well versed enough in geography and the possibilities of existing waterways to say, we imagine, however, that it is feasible, or that it is possible for engineering genius to ultimately discover the method of extending the inland waterway south of Beaufort. Meanwhile, the Southern Atlantic States should lose no time in pressing every such suggestion looking to the cheaper rates which would follow on the perfection of such a plan, at once within the economic purview of the government and of every State affected. It may yet be possible to send and receive cargoes in river craft between Columbia on the Congaree and Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia.—Columbia State.

CONTROVERSY INTENSE.

Trinity College Students and Faculty at War to End.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Durham, N. C., Nov. 7.—"Any student who has his heart set on playing football can honorably go to an institution where the game is played. To play here is direct rebellion against authority, and the leaders and those taking part in the game will be expelled from this college immediately," was the emphatic statement of Dean W. I. Cranford in a chapel address this morning.

Dean Cranford expressed himself in a clear manner that was impossible of producing a misunderstanding concerning the position of the college authorities in regard to the athletic question here. He declared that such a demonstration as was exhibited here last night when the students formed a small sized army and marched up town, creating a general furore of excitement in the business district, and proceeded to the mansion of Mr. Benjamin N. Duke, where they demanded his sentiment in regard to football, would delay the coming of the game to Trinity College a quarter of a century.

"No amount of the game, even five or ten minutes play, either 'varsity, class or scrub, will be tolerated for a moment here. Any man who defies authority and plays anyhow will be expelled.

"The present set of students at this institution is as good as any crowd of students that has ever been here. They are urged on to this sort of demonstration by fanatics who will assuredly be sent away from the college as soon as their identity can be learned by the authorities.

"A public demonstration is not the way to secure anything here. If the students want anything that they do not have, let them present the matter to the proper authorities. The hope for football, however, is without foundation, and I assure you that you will never get the game here, not in this generation, at any rate."

He classified the parading last night as a disorderly disturbance and expressed the hope that the students would not see fit to repeat such a performance.

Although a damper was necessarily thrown over the enthusiasm of the crowd generally by this speech, a deep rooted sentiment still prevails in the community. A number of more prominent participants in last night's episode were summoned before the authorities this morning and given a lecture and a warning that further demonstration on their part would mean their expulsion. It is estimated that a large part of the student body will leave college voluntarily if any expulsions result from last night's performances. Sentiment in the city is strongly in favor of the students' side of the question. The people of Durham would be glad to see football return to the city.

Bishop John C. Kilgo is bitterly opposed to the question, and declares that as long as he has any connection with Trinity College and its affairs football will be prohibited here. Last night Bishop Kilgo was delivering an address to the Y. M. C. A. men when a crowd of enthusiasts congregated on the campus and began yelling. Such a commotion was made on the outside that Dr. Kilgo's voice was drowned.

"Before I would allow my son to attend a college where such a spirit as that exists," he declared, referring to the spirit shown by the crowd outside, "I would send him to the country to plow a blind mule. The mule would offer more decent society than such a pagan crowd as that out yonder. I have seen football removed from Trinity College, and, please God, before I will see it return here, I will sever all my connections with the institution," he declared impressively.

JOE HUMPHREYS HELD.

Arrested at Elizabethtown, Wanted Here for Murder.

Elizabethtown, N. C., Nov. 7.—Acting under description of Sheri Cowan of New Hanover county, Sheriff J. M. Clark arrested today, he thinks, Joseph Humphrey, alias Mumford, wanted in Wilmington for cutting a colored woman to death there some time ago. He denies that he is the man, but fits the description and has told the darkies that he killed a woman in Wilmington, and that no sheriff could arrest him. Sheriff Clark worked a clever trick. Assisted by Mr. W. H. Hartis on whose place he was working, and had no trouble in placing hil in jail where he awaits the arrival of a Wilmington officer to identify him. He is tall, ginger cake color, red-eyed and tells many conflicting tales of his past resorts. No doubt he is a bad negro, and is wanted somewhere if he should not be the darkey wanted in Wilmington.

TEST OF NEW INVENTION

Machine for Manufacture of Gas Promises Revolution in Lighting of the Country—Experts Investigating.

Mr. Frederick J. Faulding, of New York, a recognized authority on chemistry and allied subjects, arrived in the city yesterday morning and in company with Mr. Thos. W. Pritchard, the well known local chemist and inventor, is making an investigation of the merits of a machine invented by a North Carolinian and being tried out by Mr. John F. Vann, of Charlotte, and Mr. T. A. Darby, of Wilmington, for the manufacture of gas by a gasoline process without fire.

The machine has been here for the past 30 days under test by Messrs. Vann and Darby, who are very much pleased with the results so far. At considerable expense they brought the well known expert here to make a thorough test of the machine. Mr. Darby said that if the machine is found to do all it is claimed for it, and he believes it will, it will sell itself, but if it will not do the work, then it will not and should not find a sale, he said.

"The contention for the machine," said Mr. Darby in discussing the machine yesterday, "is that it is non-explosive, works automatically, produces a gas 30 per cent. warmer than manufactured gas and at very much reduced cost. The invention, on account of its simplicity, the parts being in no way complicated, is a utility for every home in the country, enabling country people to have light, heat and power and all conveniences of this nature that may be had in the city, and, in fact, a much brighter light, even exceeding that of the electric light. The possibilities are that the country people owning a machine of this kind will have a superior light at less cost than the people in the city.

"The most wonderful thing about the machine is its simplicity and its perfect safety. There is absolutely no danger of explosion. The gas is elementary perfect as demonstrated by the complete combustion, as noticed by boiling water in a silver-plated vessel. There is absolutely no soot on the bottom, which is proof positive that there is complete combustion. A lady might attend to cooking with white dress on and yet not soil it. It has been said that it is 'The Housewives' emancipation from the dictation of servants.' A housewife using this gas with which to cook would find cooking a pleasure instead of a drudge."

Mr. Darby said that he believed all that was claimed for the machine is true, though he could not say positively until after the report of Messrs. Faulding and Pritchard and other experts. When they put their stamp of approval upon it, Mr. Darby said he would then be satisfied that it will do all and even more than it is claimed for it.

Mr. Faulding is one of the most eminent experts in his line in the country and has been connected with the United States Steel Company and other large corporations.

The machines will be manufactured in Wilmington if the test proves satisfactory and the conditions appear satisfactory for the distribution of them from this point.

TYPHOID VACCINE FREE.

Will be Given by State Laboratory to Those Who Apply.

Many people in Wilmington and other places in this section will be interested in the announcement from Raleigh that typhoid vaccine can now be had free upon application to the State Board of Health. The board requests, however, that only those persons who will use it apply for the vaccine, and hopes that all who will use it will apply.

The State Board of Health announces that "vaccination against typhoid fever has passed all the tests of science and practice, and has won as prominent a place among sanitarians as vaccination against smallpox."

Typhoid vaccine has been used very extensively in Wilmington for the past two or three years and a great many of the physicians think that the decrease in the number of cases of typhoid fever is due to some extent to this fact. Savannah, Ga., has had similar experience with the typhoid vaccine as the following paragraphs from an article in Thursday's Savannah Morning News will show:

"That to vaccination against typhoid in Savannah is largely due the lower percentage of cases here this year is the belief of prominent physicians. The protection against fever which the vaccine is believed by some to give to those treated with it has brought it into more general use.

"While there were cases of vaccination against typhoid fever in this city shortly after the serum was discovered, it has only been recently that treatment with the vaccine has been general here."

CONTRACT AWARDED.

Work on Roadway to Lumber Plant Begins in Short Time.

The contract was awarded yesterday to Mr. J. L. Becton, civil engineer, for the construction of a clay-gravel road to the plant of the Clark-Lynch Lumber Company, at Tenth and Kidder streets, a distance of about three and a half blocks from the present hard road, at 24 3-4 cents per square yard, being the lowest of the three bids submitted. The bids were opened yesterday at noon in the office of the Mayor. It is expected that work on the roadway, which is to be 12 feet wide, will begin immediately. The lumber company will lend the city the money with which to make the improvement. It is probable that under the same contract Mr. Becton will improve Nixon street, which was recently authorized by the Council.

MAY HAVE HUMPHREY.

Negro Under Arrest at Elizabethtown May be Wanted Here.

A negro that answers the description of Joe Humphrey, wanted here for the murder of Penny Smith, a colored woman, some months ago, is under arrest at Elizabethtown, according to information received yesterday by Sheriff Cowan from Sheriff J. M. Clark, of Bladen county. Sheriff Cowan will send a negro man to Elizabethtown this morning to identify the man under arrest there. If he is Joe Humphrey he will be brought to Wilmington and lodged in jail to await trial in Superior Court, which convenes Monday. Humphrey has been hunted by the city and county officers and by officers throughout this section ever since the murder, and although the thought they were warm on his trail several times they were never able to capture him.

Besides having had years of experience in educational work she has also taken much interest in this special feature of community improvement. She is president of the Wake County Betterment Association, and is recognized as a leader in the movement for securing a better environment in which to live.

OFF TO PHILADELPHIA.

Committee Will Try to Get Phillies to Train Here Next Year.

Messrs. C. E. Greenamyer, vice president of the Wilmington Commercial Club, and Mr. John W. Blomme left last night for Philadelphia, where this afternoon at 2 o'clock they will appear before a meeting of the directors of the Philadelphia National Baseball Club and urge the selection of Wilmington as the place for the training ground next Spring. Wilmington is making a determined effort to bring the club here. Southern Pines, where the team trained last season, is also working hard to get the club again next season. The directors will probably announce their decision in a short time.

ENDORSE STEAMBOAT LINE

Commercial Club Would Like to See More Vessels Between Wilmington and the North—By-Laws Adopted.

Organization of the Wilmington Commercial Club was completed at an enthusiastic and fairly largely attended meeting of the members in the lodge room of the Elks' Temple last night. The by-laws which had been prepared by the executive committee were adopted with but few changes. President Evans will announce the various committees in a short time and then the new club will be in splendid working order in every way.

Besides the adoption of the by-laws, thus completing the organization of the new club, a resolution was adopted heartily endorsing the Southern Steamboat Company, which proposes to establish a line of steamers between Wilmington and Baltimore and New York, and various details of the club were discussed.

President Chas. N. Evans presided and both Secretary Meares Harriss and Assistant Secretary H. T. Bauman were present to welcome the members and to assist in the meeting. The first business was to receive reports from those members who promised at the first meeting two weeks ago to secure a certain number of new members by yesterday. The reports showed that some had more than made good. For instance, one man who promised two new members turned in 12, and another who promised five turned in eight. It was announced that there are now 160 members of the club with several who promised to secure new members yet to be heard from. The charter was closed last night, but any names not yet turned in by the committees will be added as charter members. Those who come in as charter members have agreed to pay $25 a year in advance for three years as the membership dues. In order to secure the membership of those who would like to be affiliated with the club but feel that they cannot pay the $25 in a lump, it was decided last night that all those who join from now on may have the privilege of paying quarterly in advance the sum of $6.25. It is expected that by reason of this change several hundred new members will be added within the next few weeks. A total membership of 500 by Christmas is the goal. The club proposes not to stop soliciting until at least 1,000 members have been enrolled.

In giving a resume of the work of the officers and executive committee since the first meeting President Evans said that temporary quarters had been secured; an assistant secretary named; considerable correspondence had been had with prospective manufacturers and truckers; an active part been taken in securing the charter for the Southern Steamboat Company; a committee had been sent to Philadelphia to make an effort to get the Phillies to train here next season; five meetings of the executive committee had been held, and last, but not least, correspondence had been had with a man of wide experience in putting new life in Chambers of Commerce about the country, as the person who may be selected to fill the important position in the club of city builder. He will probably come to Wilmington, it was stated, in a short time and take the matter up in person. President Evans said that he is a man highly recommended as being well qualified for the very exacting duties of the position of city builder. In conclusion, President Evans stated that the club is being recognized as an important factor in the future development of the city.

An interesting letter was read by the secretary from Mr. E. T. Wade, traveling man and member of the club, who could not be present, as he was out of the city. He wrote of his interest in the development of Wilmington and in the growth of the club and gave several suggestions for the consideration of the body. One was to make an effort to induce the railroads to give cheap rates to Wilmington and return in December so that people living in neighboring towns could come here and do their Christmas shopping at minimum expense to them. Another was to send a committee to Southern Pines and Pinehurst, where many Northerners spend their Winters, and invite them down here for a visit, feeling certain that if they could be induced to come here once and investigate the many advantages this section has to offer that they would come here every Winter.

Following the reading and adoption of the by-laws, there was a lengthy discussion with regard to the proposed social feature of club, it being finally decided to take no action until after the report of the committee named to secure a home for the club is ready to report. Sentiment among the members is divided on the question, though there appeared no marked opposition to the idea of waiting until the club is more firmly established before taking on this additional feature. It will depend very largely upon whether the committee is able to get a suitable building at reasonable rental.

President Evans announced that the ladies of North Carolina Sorosis had extended to the members of the club a cordial invitation to visit the Fine Arts and Industrial Exhibit to be held next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and he expressed the hope that the members would not only visit the exhibit but give it their patronage. He also called attention to the fact that the local manufacturers had not responded to the request of the ladies for exhibits of "Wilmington Made" articles. He urged that the Commercial Club see that the articles are secured and exhibited.

It was decided upon motion of Mr. Hugh MacRae that the membership of the club will be composed of individuals and that firms and corporations as such will not be accepted as members. In this way the membership of the club will be greatly increased.

President Evans announced that he was glad to see Patrolman W. R. Applebury present and to know he had become a member of the club and asked him if he had any suggestions for the "good of the town." Mr. Applebury responded, suggesting the establishment of an information bureau, to which persons making inquiries could be directed. He said that people come to the policemen on the streets for all sorts of information and often it cannot be supplied. At present, he said, there is no place to direct them to get authentic information. Members of the club realized the importance of the suggestion of Mr. Applebury. The idea of Mr. Applebury was to have the information bureau in connection with the office of the club.

In response to an inquiry of President Evans as to the progress he is making in his canvass for subscriptions to the Southern Steamboat Company, Capt. M. L. Gilbert stated that $11,000 of the $25,000 stock had been subscribed. There are 53 subscribers to stock. The club then, upon motion of Mr. Clayton Giles, Jr., seconded by Mr. B. F. Keith, endorsed the project.

Among those who took part in the discussions during the evening were: Messrs. Hugh MacRae, M. F. H. Gouverneur, Chas. C. Loughlin, B. F. Keith, F. E. Hashagen, J. S. Funchess, J. E. Burke, D. H. Howes, Jr., W. R. Applebury, Stuart R. Keyes, Sig Zulowsky and others.

The meeting adjourned shortly after 11 o'clock. Regular monthly meetings are to be held by the club, the time to be selected by the executive committee.

DEATH SHROUDED IN MYSTERY

Unknown Negro Woman Found Dead on Tracks of Tidewater Power Company at Delgado—Skull Mutilated.

An unknown negro woman with top of head removed smoothly as if cut off by an axe, was found last night at 7 o'clock on the tracks of the Tidewater Power Company opposite the Cape Fear Country Club golf links at Delgado by the crew of the outgoing suburban car which left Front and Princess streets at 6:40 o'clock. While the easiest explanation of her death is that she was struck by a car there are circumstances which make this a doubtful one.

Mr. Ed Allen, one of the Tidewater Power Company's most experienced and trustworthy employes, was the motorman in charge of the car and Mr. Lucien Bishop, the conductor. The car was equipped with a strong headlight, and Mr. Allen stated that as he passed over the hill at Delgado he saw an object on the left hand side of the track which at first he thought was a piece of paper. When he got within about 50 feet he saw that it was a man, as he thought, apparently with his arm across the left hand track. He applied the breaks, but was unable to stop the car before it passed beyond the object.

He called to Conductor Bishop that he had run over a man and had cut off his arm. When they, together with several others went back to investigate they found the woman lying beside the track with the skull removed from the head.

The offices of the Tidewater Power Company were notified immediately and Coroner John J. Fowler was sent for. A special car in charge of Mr. W. B. Savage, assistant claim agent for the Tidewater Power Company, and Mr. E. W. Manning, was used to transport Coroner Fowler, Deputy Sheriff Kelly and a number of others to the scene. When they arrived they found the body lying in what is said to have been the same position that it was found by those on the car when first discovered.

The head was lying away from the track, and the part of the head which had been removed was lying over inside the track. A part of the skirt was across the track. Coroner Fowler thought it best to have a jury view the body before it was removed, and came back to the city in the special car to impannel a jury. The jury is composed of Messrs. C. H. Daniel, D. M. Davis, N. R. Davis, C. L. Dickinson, Dan Quinlivan and W. M. Monroe.

After viewing the body the jury took a recess until this afternoon at 3 o'clock when they will again examine the body and take the testimony of witnesses.

The body was turned over to John H. Shaw, the colored undertaker. There was no one last night who could identify the body. The woman was apparently about 30 years old and rather heavily built. How she came to be on the track at that point is a mystery as well as the way she came to her death.

As far as could be determined last night there were only two splotches of blood on the trucks of the car which Mortorman Allen was running. A possible explanation of her death was advanced that it might have been by another car, but it hardly seems this could be so. That she may have met with foul play by someone who used an axe may furnish a possible explanation of her death.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Carrie James, Colored, Given Six Months on County Farm.

There was only one case before the Recorder yesterday, this being that of Carrie James, colored, charged with violating the prohibition law. She waived examination in Justice Harriss' court Thursday. Sim Davis testified that he purchased a half gallon of whiskey from her last December. Evidence was introduced to show that she had been receiving by express numerous shipments recently. The Recorder thought she was guilty of the charge, and gave her six months on the county farm. An appeal was taken to Superior Court, and she gave bond in the sum of $300.

It was stated in yesterday's Star that T. L. Skipper was fined for an alleged assault. It should have been T. S. Skipper. Mr. T. L. Skipper, of Phoenix, was in the city Thursday, but was not in any way implicated in the case.

MR. ADAMS IN RALEIGH.

Wilmington Pastor as Seen by Capital City Newspaper Man.

The following is from the "As I Was A-Sayin'" column of yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer:

"Rev. Gilbert T. Adams, once pastor in Raleigh, later in Durham and now in Wilmington, was an eastbound passenger yesterday and dropped off to see the folks whom he liked when he lived at these places.

"His moustache had vanished, his circumference enlarged, his six feet three had been sustained and about all that remained of the "old Adam" was his rich, resonant voice, his 'howdy do brother', his fadeless love of good plug tobacco, and the call of penitents.

"'Been holding a revival in Greensboro?' he was asked in the omniscient style of the reporter.

"'Nope.'

"'Greensboro, of course, I remember seeing the papers and what they said about your sermons. Had a fine meeting of course, papers said you did, and now you have finished and are on your way to Wilmington?'

"'I was in Greensboro attending the meeting of the trustees of the Woman's College of Greensboro,' Brother Adams rejoined. 'I did stop in Durham to see my daughter who is in school there, but I didn't preach at either place. I am holding revivals all the time in Wilmington. What's my precise fighting weight, as you say, and how many pounds have I gained in the last two years. Well, I weigh 202 pounds now and have gained about 40 pounds.'

"Whereupon Brother Adams, typically bully fellow of eastern Methodism, allowed his interpreter to make his manners and indulge the hope that the 40 pounds of corporation excess will not prove the only Methodist 'gains' which he will carry to the conference in a few days."

MUCH INTEREST IN CLASSES.

Many Young Men of Y. M. C. A. Taking Gymnasium Work Daily.

One of the most popular features of the Y. M. C. A. is the gymnasium classes, and the number of young men taking the work is growing rapidly. There are now 16 classes and they come at such hours as to make it possible for almost anyone who wishes to become a member to have the benefit of expert instruction under the direction of the instructor. Although only organized a few days ago the class of work now being done surpasses anything of its kind ever before done in the city.

Many of the young men rooming in the building get up early in the morning for a turn before beginning the day's work. Others who have to work during the day join the classes in the late afternoon and engage for a half hour or more in healthy physical exercise which keeps them in fine trim for their daily duties.

SUPERIOR COURT MONDAY.

One-week Term for the Trial of Criminal Cases—Judge Rountree.

There are no cases on the docket likely to be reached next week that are of especial interest.

Bishops Ill in New York.

A New York special to yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer says: "Ill in St. Luke's Hospital today are three bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church and one clergyman who declined election as a bishop. They are: Bishop Henry D. Robinson, of Nevada; Bishop Junius M. Horner, of Asheville, N. C.; Bishop Robert Strange, of Wilmington, N. C., and Rev. Hugh L. Burleson, who refused a post as a missionary bishop in the Northwest. Bishop Horner went to the hospital at the close of the convention; Bishop Robert Strange went to the hospital immediately on his arrival here from North Carolina. He has been very ill, but is doing nicely tonight."

NO TRACE OF MURDERER.

Sheriff Cowan and Party Return to City Tired and Worn—Inquest.

After searching all night with never a trace of the man wanted, Sheriff Cowan and party of deputies returned to the city shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday morning from Scott's Hill, whither they were called Thursday night by the murder of Tim Allen, colored, by Walter Thomas, also colored. The sheriff and his party, consisting of Deputies Kelly and Reynolds and Constable Davis, were tired and worn after their long hunt for the negro. After returning to the city they went to the home of Thomas' mother and made a search of her house, it being thought possible that Thomas decided to come to the city after committing the deed. They found nothing to indicate that he came this way.

Some wonder was expressed yesterday that the several persons, both white and black, who witnessed the killing would have allowed the murderer to escape, since it is reported that he talked with one or two about the affair and stopped long enough to take some clothes belonging to another person at the camp, but there is really another side to the matter, according to Coroner John J. Fowler, who visited the scene of the homicide yesterday morning.

"He was armed, we were not, and he gave a pretty good demonstration of the fact that he could and didn't mind using the weapon," said one of the eye-witnesses in talking of the affair to Coroner Fowler. "We knew that it would be suicide to attempt to hold that nigger," said another.

Coroner Fowler summoned a jury to inquire into the circumstances of the killing. Mr. Gerritt Walker is chairman and Justice George Harriss is secretary. After examining one witness yesterday afternoon the jury adjourned to meet at 10:30 o'clock this morning in the Court House, when other witnesses will be examined.

The citizens are not only invited to be present, but are asked to come prepared to take part in the discussion, the Council desiring to get all the suggestions possible in the settlement of this serious problem. The principal question to be decided is whether the removal of the intake or the drilling of a battery of deep wells is the proper solution.

DELIGHTFUL RECEPTION AT ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.

A delightful social event of the week was a reception to the members of the church and congregation last night at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church under the auspices of the Church Aid Society, in the Memorial Hall. It was attended by a large number of the members and their friends and was delightfully informal.

An enjoyable feature was the musical programme given by St. Andrew's Christian Orchestra, with Mrs. E. Norfleet as leader, and a number of pleasing solos and duets by others. The recitations by Miss Sarah Hines, rendered with fine spirit, were especially enjoyed. Mrs. Boylan sang two solos, these being "Nita Gitana" and "Good Night, Sweet Dreams," Mr. Spaver sang a solo entitled "Macushla," and Mr. Bert Jones, "The Drum Major."

A quartette composed of Messrs. Sutherland, Spaver, Jones and Tremaine sang "Soldiers, Farewell." Messrs. Sutherland and Jones sang a duet entitled "Larboard Watch." Mr. Sutherland also sang a solo, "I Hear You Calling." All these selections were given in a most excellent manner.

Following the musical programme delightful refreshments were served. The evening was voted to be a most enjoyable one by all.

BALANCED MENUS SUBJECT OF INTERESTING LECTURE.

The regular monthly meeting of the Household Economics Department of Sorosis was held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the reading room of the Masonic Temple. The reports of the various committees were made, these being devoted largely to work that has been done in connection with the approaching Fine Arts and Industrial Exhibits, which will be held this week.

The subject for consideration at this meeting was "Balanced Menus", and the ladies were fortunate to have Miss Grace Logan, teacher of domestic science in the High School, to discuss this very important question. She outlined the different classes of food and told of their value to the human body. She gave examples of one-sided menus, and showed how it is false economy to buy too many foods of one kind and leave out others which are just as important.

For 17 cents a day, she said, with the right kind of foods, a satisfactory and nutritious diet can be provided for one person. "This is one way to help solve the high cost of living," she stated. She showed that the ideal diet is that combination of foods which, while imposing the least burden on the body, supplies the proper nutritive food.

Miss Logan has kindly consented to give lessons in food values and balanced menus on the third Friday afternoon in each month during the year to the members of the Household Economics Department and to any other members of Sorosis who may desire to become members of the class. The ladies count themselves fortunate in having this opportunity of getting expert instruction from one who has made a specialty of domestic science, and has received training in some of the best schools in the country.

CLINTON PYTHIANS ENJOY A BANQUET.

Clinton, N. C., Nov. 7.—The Clinton Knights of Pythias had a banquet in their new Castle Hall on Thursday night that eclipsed any social event in Clinton for some time. Following the custom of this fraternity this banquet was given in honor of the recent marriage of a member, Mr. H. L. Stewart, who with his bride, nee Miss Jewell Ashford, were honor guests. On account of this date being the fifth anniversary of the establishment of this lodge, and the fact that a beautiful home has recently been completed for it, the affair took a larger meaning and became a fifth anniversary and house warming as well.

The scene of the banquet, the new lodge room, was the maximum of good taste and beauty. The newly-furnished rooms of the fraternity were thrown open for the reception of the guests and punch was served before the diners took their places at the festive board. The banquet hall was peopled with 75 of Clinton's fairest ladies and most gallant men. Around the table sat the most representative body of men that Clinton can afford. Mr. L. L. Matthews was toastmaster, par excellence. His witty thrusts spurred the speakers and put them at their best. Responses were made by Messrs. George L. Peterson, Theodore Partrick, Jr., Sam H. Hobbs, H. L. Stewart, Rev. A. C. Moore and Major George E. Butler. The company was so fortunate as to hear short speeches from two Pythians prominent in the State; Mr. W. W. Wilson, S. D. G. C., and Mr. M. T. Brezeale, D. D. G. C., who were here as guests of the Clinton lodge.

The Knights of Pythias have had a number of enjoyable banquets during the past two or three years but this one easily outdistanced them all. The members are very proud of their new quarters, which would be a credit to a much larger lodge and the fact that the affair was held in them added a great deal.

—It was reported to the police yesterday at noon that John Hawkins, a colored youth, had broken open the cash drawer at Tom Smith's wood yard, where he was employed, and stole $56 in money. —Since the discussion on the water supply began a few weeks ago there has been an unusual demand for Prof. John W. Ritchie's text book, "Primer on Sanitation." They sell for 40 cents and the information contained therein is worth the while of any who are interested in studying the water question and general sanitation problems.

TWO GAMES BASKETBALL.

Exciting Contests at the Boys' Brigade Armory Last Night.

The basketball games at the Boys' Brigade last night were the best of the season and both developed several surprises. The first surprise was the strength shown by the Eagles who defeated Company A, and the second was the speed of Company B, which defeated the Cardinals 50 to 17. In the first game it seemed a foregone conclusion that the Eagles would fall before Company A, and it looked like this throughout the game until the last few minutes, when the Eagles took on a spurt which Company A could not stop and when the game ended they had won by the close margin of 20 to 19.

This game was replete with good plays on the part of both teams and kept the spectators in a state of excitement bordering on the point of frenzy which was shown in shouts, whistles, stamping of feet and every other means of creating a disturbance and giving vent to their pent-up excitement in their joy at the great uphill fight put up by the erstwhile despised Eagles. The Eagles passed the ball fast and accurately from the beginning of the game and opened up many opportunities for shots, which failed during the first half, but in the second half their shooting was more accurate and whenever an opportunity presented they scored either from the foul line or field until they had overtaken their rivals and then just before the end they secured one point from the foul line which gave them the point necessary to win, and had scored their first victory.

McCartney, a player drafted from the Tuesday Night League, played a star game for the Eagles at guard, holding Cameron down to one goal and helping his team to get the ball in scrimmages. Palmgren also played a great game, while Montgomery, Gerdes and Applewhite each did his part in this fight for a place in the winning column.

Company A also played a good game and lost only after a hard fight which lasted to the very end of the game. Company A made 14 fouls while the Eagles made 12. The Eagles scored six field goals and six foul goals, Applewhite throwing all the foul goals for his team and two field goals. Gerdes scored the other field goals. Company A scored seven field goals and five foul goals.

The second game between the Cardinals and Company B was a run-away race for Company B. The Cardinals played a fast game from the start as is their usual custom, but Company B were playing at top form and took the lead at the beginning and were never in danger. They played what was probably the best game of their career. Such passing as they did has never before been seen in Wilmington and they scored goals from every part of the field, some of them being sensational beyond description. Borneman led in this feature. He made eight goals, all long ones and one being the length of the gymnasium with one hand, which set the spectators wild. Happy Register also secured eight goals; Shephard one; H. Register three; Branch three and Sholar one. For the Cardinals, M. Register shot four field goals; Huhn two; King one and Snakenburg one. In this game only four fouls were called and there were all in the second half, each team committing two.

This victory of Company B and that of the Eagles puts Company B in undisputed possession of first place with Company A and the Cardinals tie for second place and the Eagles last.

UNIQUE PRIZE OFFERED.

First Premium on Life Insurance Policy for the Best Baby.

Thos. D. Meares, Esq., general agent of the Maryland Life Insurance Company, of Baltimore, with headquarters in this city, has written to Mrs. W. G. Whitehead, in charge of the "Better Babies' Contest," in connection with the Sorosis fair, offering to give as a prize to the father of the baby winning first honors the first premium on a 20-payment life insurance policy, the baby to be named as beneficiary in the policy. In his letter Mr. Meares says: "The campaign for the improvement of general health conditions throughout the country appeals naturally to a life insurance company and it is hoped that this offer will stimulate some interest in this splendid movement."

Before offering the prize Mr. Meares wrote the Attorney General of the State for an opinion as to whether the company would be within the law in giving the policy. His reply is that the course of the insurance company is highly moral, that the law is to be interpreted in the spirit of the times and that the spirit of the age is for better babies.

..Theatrical..

Eugene Walter's successful play, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," which comes to the Academy Monday, matinee and night, seats now selling at Bunting's, is not a fanciful creation but a heart-throbbing story, exquisitely embellished with scenic effects of the Virginia hills. A mountain girl, primitive, uncouth, almost savage in her likes and dislikes, but womanly withal, meets in Jack Hale, a type of man she never imagined existed. He, on the other hand, is enthralled with the Gypsy-like qualities of the wild lass of the hills, and becomes interested in her, without at first imagining that such a wild flower would ever fall in love with and wish to marry him. He monopolizes all her thoughts by day, while her image blends with everything he sees in the lone mountains. Through his eyes she sees the wonders of the world outside, the cities where her forebears came from, and under the old pine tree she avows her love for him and he avows his love for her, and they send for the justice of the peace and are married, thus ending a feud that has existed so long. Isabelle Lowe plays June and she is associated with the strong New York cast.

Week-end at Bijou.

Yes, it's going to be a big week-end at the popular Bijou. With five of the swellest and rarest of films, in which will be seen a galaxy of favorite moving picture Thespians, the Bijou will offer a superb bill today and one which no one can afford to go shy on. Besides all this the Bijou offers a merry musical programme, solid comfort and the tiny price of admission of 5 cents, afternoon and night.

Today's film gems will be lead by the Vitagraph's "Extremities," which is a dramatic story that starts with a mix-up in feet, something decidedly novel. In the stellar roles of this film will appear clever, charming Clara Kimball Young and dashing Maurice Costello.

Then will come, as another swell star, Essanay's latest, "The Struggle," which is a gripping dramatic of the West and in the prinicipal roles will be seen Marguerite Clayton and Mr. G. M. Anderson.

Then there is a rousing comedy on today in Edison's "Boy Wanted," to be followed by the biggest travel film of all, "Scenes in Singapore." And then there is a great educational photoplay on the bill. It is "The Pink Granite Industry at Milford, Massachusetts."

Fine Pictures at Grand.

Five reels, including a special two-reel release, will make up today's wonderful Saturday offering which the cozy, handsome Grand will place before the folks of Wilmington. It is truly a stupendous bill and will, no doubt, be greeted by large audiences both afternoon and night. The special two-reel release is Selig's most remarkable dramatic, "The Young Mrs. Eames." It is a powerful emotional drama and a star cast will be seen in the presentation, including Kathlyn Williams, Harold Lockwood, Herbert Bosworth and Ethyl Davis.

There is another particular star film on today in "Sissybelle," which is the snappy story of the regeneration of a spoiled boy. This cast will also be notable, including Eugenie Besserer, H. [illegible] Livingston and Roy Clark as "the boy."

Acting as a splendid foil to this duo of great dramatics (three films) will be offered two strong comedy photoplays. The Biograph's "Baby Indisposed," is a corker for laughs. However, just as rich is "The Lady in Black." It is a travesty on the work of the hero and villian of the modern drama and it's a daisy.

The Grand is certainly the attractive and comfortable spot these days.

Big Musical Comedy Next Wednesday

Wilmington theatre-goers are anticipating with keen delight the presentation at the Academy next Wednesday night of the great and big music show, "The Girl of My Dreams." It will be one of the most brilliant and elaborate offerings of the season and will, no doubt, be greeted by a "S. R. O." audience. Seats for the performance will go on sale at Bunting's Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

The press of the State has already paid its respects in lavish way to the superb attraction, and from the Greensboro Daily News comes the following.

"It was announced in the advance notices that 'The Girl of My Dreams' has no stars. It would be truer to say that it has a constellation—not all of the first magnitude, perhaps, but stars, nevertheless.

"The piece is a lively, tuneful, musical comedy with some noteworthy scenic effects and the most agile chorus that has appeared here this season. The lady who appears on the programme as Countess Olga von Hatzfeldt, and who had role of Lucy Medders, the Quaker girl, was charming, and in 'Dr. Tinkle Tinker,' male perhaps the greatest hit of the evening, though 'The Girl of My Dreams,' which she sang with Roy Purviance, as Harry Swifton, was also received with great favor by the audience.

"Of the three comedians, Frank McEwen, as Socrates Primmer, Francis Gaillard as Generalissimo Bombastino and Irving Brooks as Count von Schnigglefits, the last was the best, though all the comedy work was of a high order. Eda von Luke as Dahpne Daffington, handled a difficult part excellently, as did W. D. Stone, who played the Quaker father, making it humorous, but not a burlesque.

"Taken as a whole, 'The Girl of My Dreams' is a show of a high order, giving an evening's delightful entertainment to those who took it in."

Skelding, general manager of the Tidewater Power Co., has kindly agreed to furnish free transportation to all the teachers and public school children of the county who attend the Corn Show and Fine Arts and Industrial Exhibit next Wednesday which will be Educational Day. The Board of Education has made this a holiday for all the rural schools, and they greatly appreciate the courtesy of the Tidewater Power Company in thus co-operating with them in their efforts to get as many as possible of the school children to Wilmington to hear the splendid addresses and to see the fair.

Fire in Poultry Yard.

The explosion of a lamp in the brood house on the poultry farm of Mr. Adolph G. Ahrens, on the Federal Point road, a few miles from the city, at 7 o'clock last night, caused a fire that destroyed the building, but fortunately there was hardly any wind and the flames did not spread to adjoining buildings. The loss, probably $1,500 or $2,000, is covered by insurance. Mr. Ahrens has one of the finest poultry farms in the State.

BREAK IN COTTON MARKET

Prices Find New Low Ground—Heavy General Selling at the Start of Yesterday's Work—Bearish Influence.

New York, Nov. 7.—An early break carried the cotton market into new low ground for the movement today with January contracts selling at 13.10, or $3.75 below the recent high record. This decline reflected continued liquidation and bear pressure which seemed to be inspired by a crop estimate of 15,340,000 bales published before the opening by a traveling expert and which was also considered responsible for a sharp break in the Liverpool market. Offerings were pretty well taken around the opening figures here, however, and prices rallied on expectations of bullish ginning figures tomorrow with the close steady at net advance of two to ten points.

There was heavy general selling at the start and the talk around the ring suggested a tendency to increase estimates of the yield, althoug the influence of bearish crop figures was offset to some extent by the report of another traveling expert making the yield 13,826,500 bales.

This selling combined with the liquidation noted earlier in the week, seemed to relieve the market of more urgent pressure and prices soon rallied on covering for over the census report tomorrow trade buying and support from some of the local or Southern bulls. Liverpool was a seller here early, but offerings from that source were shut out by the close of the English market and there was comparatively little cotton for sale on the afternoon advance which carried active months about 8 to 10 points net higher. Closing prices were a shade off from the best under realizing. Reports that there was good demand for spot cotton in the South were one of the factors on the advance, but the main feature was the talk of bullish ginning returns.

Spot cotton quiet; middling uplands 14.00; middling gulf 14.25; no sales. Futures closed steady.

WEEKLY COTTON REPORT

The Cotton Market Has Been Unsettled During the Past Week—Predictions of Better Weather for the South.

New York, Nov. 7.—The cotton market has been unsettled during the past week, prices easing off from recent high records under liquidation, more Southern selling and scattering pressure.

With better weather in the South, there have been many predictions of increasing receipts and freer spot offerings, while there also appears to have been a tendency to increase estimates of the crop and toward a less optimistic view of trade requirements as a result of nervousness over the Mexican situation, reports of unfavorable financial conditions abroad and an idea that the demand for American cotton this season may be curtailed to some extent by larger foreign crops. Toward the close today, however, the market was firmer with prices showing considerable rallies on the expectation that ginning returns would hardly confirm the larger views of the yield. Crop estimates reflect a wide difference of opinion between some trading authorities, the figures ranging from 13,826,000 to 15,340,000 bales but estimates of 14,500 bales and over have been a little more in evidence although the average of over 30 estimates published so far this season is said to be in the neighborhood of 14,000,000 bales. According to private estimates the census report, due at the opening tomorrow morning, is expected to show a ginning of around 8,700,000 bales and will compare with 8,869,000 bales to the same date last year, and 9,970,000 bales two years ago. The smallest percentage of the crop ever ginned to November 1st was 53.2 per cent. in 1906 and the largest percentage was 69.7 per cent. in 1909. The average for the percentage ginned to November 1st for the past eight years has been about 62 per cent. Prominent foreign statisticians have reiterated their estimate placing the world's requirements of American cotton this season at 14,750,000 bales including 5,800,000 bales for the United States and Canada.

STOCKS MILDLY FAVORABLE

Market Has Been Contending With Depressing Influences so Long That Speculators Grateful for Upward Trend.

New York, Nov. 7.—The stock market has been contending with a succession of depressing influences for so long that speculators were grateful today for a mildly favorable development and prices were marked up.

The movement was irregular, but the general trend was upward. The rise in American stocks in London started the upward swing. Buying for London account was estimated 20,000 shares. Copper stocks were influenced by the monthly report of the producers, which, while showing an increase of 2,773,000 pounds in stock on hand, was rated as unexpectedly good. The report was made the basis of some bullish activity in Amalgamated Copper.

Another favorable feature was the improved money outlook. Cash movements indicated that the banks would make a good showing in tomorrow's statement. Foreign exchange rates were easier. Speculation was concentrated largely on Steel, Amalgamated, Reading and Union Pacific, all of which were strong. Rubber common and first preferred fell four points each, being weakened by the offering of $9,442,000 new first preferred stock. Can was under pressure from the bears, who revived the old report that the company would be prosecuted by the government. On the curb there was another brisk advance in the Standard Oil group.

Bonds were irregular, early heaviness being fallowed by some improvement in tone. Total sales, par value, $1,332,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total stock sales 209,900, including American Tobacco 100; C. & O. 200; Lehigh Valley 1,200; L. & N. 200; N. & W. 100; S. A. L. preferred 100; Southern Railway 300; Tenn. Copper 1,100; United States Steel 54,100.

BRADSTREET'S REPORT.

Holiday Business is Growing—Iron and Steel Quiet.

New York, Nov. 7.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

"Trade reports are of a two-fold character. On the one hand, distributive trade continues to expand, holiday business is growing and the tendency is to increase estimates of yields of cotton and corn, but against these factors must be cited the further slowing down of wholesale trade and increased quietude in iron and steel.

Some lines that might be active prefer to wait for tariff readjustments an example being furnished by worsted mills, which deem it good policy to hold back for free wool. However, it is plainly patent that the daily wants of a large population are sufficient to keep things moving along at a satisfactory rate and even in sections where there is a tendency to pessimism it is conceded that business is equal to that of last year, when activity reigned.

"Business failures of the week were 241, which compares with 209 in 1912. "Wheat, including flour, exports for the week aggregate 7,837,876 bushels, against 6,068,725 last year."

DRY GOODS MARKETS.

New York, Nov. 7.—Substantial quantities of South American and Australian wools have been bought by domestic mills in the past week and a broader interest is being shown in nearly all foreign wools. Cotton goods and cotton yarn markets were barely steady today. Printed silks are being sold well for Spring.

and it was officially said that the activity there was preliminary to the execution of plans announced several weeks ago for the working out of an advanced base problem on a large scale by the marines. The Hancock, a naval receiving ship, is being fitted out as a marine transport to accommodate about 1,500 men.

Chester Has Sailed.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—Prepared for any eventuality, the scout cruiser Chester sailed from the Philadelphia navy yard at noon today for Vera Cruz.

Captain Moffett said the expected to reach his destination some time Monday night.

The Chester, which is equipped with the most powerful wireless apparatus on any ship in the navy, is provisioned for three months, carries much ammunition and machinery and field guns.

Wants Investigation.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Representative Bartholdt, of Missouri, introduced a resolution today setting out that inasmuch as Secretary Bryan had denied published reports that the United States had last Sunday sent an ultimatum to Mexico, the Foreign Affairs Committee should investigate, the source of the news.

Discussing his resolution Mr. Barthoidt declared it was important to determine whether an error had been made or "whether the administration changed its plan in the last minute and when it was too late to recall the tion previously given out."

SEE THE CANAL.

s of Southern Commercial ongress View Big Ditch.

na, Nov. 7.—A delegation of bers of the Southern Commergress, representing 12 Southern States, headed by Clarence J. Owens, managing director, today selected a spot on the bluff at the north end of the cut overlooking the site of the Gamboa dike and dedicated it for a bronze medallion tablet with a life size bust of the late John Tyler Morgan, United States Senator from Alabama. Mr. Morgan was at one time chairman of the Senate Committee of inter-oceanic canals and was known as the father of the canal idea.

Addresses were made by Mr. Owen, Richard Lee Metcalfe, Governor of the Canal Zone; Miss Louise Lindsley, of Nashville, representing the Women's Auxiliary of the Southern Commercial Congress, and William J. Price, United States minister to Panama. All the speakers lauded the work of Mr. Morgan and the engineering achievements of Col. Goethals, chief engineer of the canal.

Tomorrow the visitors wil be taken through the Pacific locks and a part of the Culebra cut on a tug in charge of Col. Goethals.

DECLINE TO RESIGN.

Federal Officeholders In State Will Not Get Out.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 7.—Attorney General McReynolds has received letters from District Attorney Seawell and Marshals Dockery and Logan declaring that they will not resign their positions until their commissions expire the early part of next Spring. This information was given Senator Overman today when he called at the Department of Justice to learn whether the resignations had been received. While the Department has not heard from District Attorney Holton, his friends here say that he, too, will refuse to resign.

Attorney General McReynolds is out of the city and until his return no further effort, it is said, will be made to oust the Republican officeholders. Whether McReynolds will take the bit in his teeth and oust Messrs. Holton, Seawell, Dockery and Logan no one here is authorized to say, but it is probable that drastic measures wil be resorted to.

INVESTIGATION BLOCKED.

Congressman Mann Made a Point of No Quorum.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Congressional investigation of the Colorado mine strike was blocked in the House today by Republican Leader Mann making a point of no quorum.

The resolution would have the HouseL abor Committee to inquire into charges of coercion of the judiciary, influence on Congressional elections by the mining companies, interference with mails and restraint of trade to advance prices of coal.

Mr. Mann conceded it was very likely that Congress should investigate, but declared the worst strike of all was in the House of Representatives where absentee members should be ordered back to work.

FOUND DEAD.

South Carolina Man Succumbs to Heart Failure.

Camden, S. C., Nov. 7.—C. G. Leggs for several years superintendent of the Camden city schools, was found dead in bed at his home here this morning. He retired last night in his usual good health. Heart failure is believed to have been the cause of death. Mr. Leggs was born in Spartanburg, March 7, 1859. The funeral will take place in Charleston.

MRS. LAKE RELEASED.

Young Widow Held for Complicity to Murder.

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 7.—The release of Mrs. Emmie H. Lake, the young widow implicated in the murder of Miss Florence Brown by the confessions of Meade Barr may be ordered tomorrow according to an authoritative statement tonight. She has been held on a warrant charging complicity.

Barr late today in a detailed statement completly exonerated Mrs. Lake, at the same time declaring his confession to the grand jury was made under the influence of drugs. Barr's purpose of confession to the murder was to secure a pardon from his indeterminate sentence for murdering a negro in Indiana, according to a statement today by his sister, Mrs. C. E. Sanders, who said her brother had authorized her to speak for him. Barr, she said, had hoped to make Dallas authorities believe his story of Florence Brown's death up to the point of asking for his pardon in Indiana, in order to use him as a witness in Texas, where a convict's testimony is inadmissible.

ATTACKS MISSIONS.

Foreigner Declares Missionaries Live Like Lords, and Do No Good.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 7.—Dr. Keshava Deva Shastri, of Benares, India, who attended the International Purity Congress today, aroused the ire of many delegates by an interview printed in a local newspaper, which was construed as an attack on the Christian missions in his native land.

Among the statements attributed to Dr. Shastri in the published interview were:

"If Americans knew how much money is being spent in missionary work and how little is being accomplished, the donations for proselyting would stop at once.

"There is little prospect that the Hindus in any great number ever will be converted to the Christian religion.

"As to the low class Hindus, the missionary system is one of catering material aid for converts.

"The missionary lives like a lord, with a retinue of hervants."

Dr. Shastri told a committee appointed to act on his case, that he stood by the interview in every detail.

"I was not intending any attack," he said. "I was asked questions about conditions in my country, and I told about them."

A LARGE CONTRACT.

What J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. Wants Every Person in Wilmington to Do.

When the J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., the enterprising druggists, first offered a 50 cent package of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price, and guaranteed to return the money if it did not cure, they thought it probable from their experience with other medicines for these diseases, that they would have a good many packages returned. But although they have sold hundreds of bottles, not one has been brought back.

To those suffering with dizziness, headache, poor digestion, constipation and straining, Dr. Howard's specific offers quick relief. It is an invaluable boon to all who feel uncomfortable after eating, and is today the popular dinner pill in all the large cities. (advertisement.)
